LETTER FROM

No. 1694, Judicial, dated the 6th December 1909.

Letter - From the Inspector-General of Police, Madras.
To the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras.
Dated the 3rd November September 1909.
No. 325/A.P.

I have the honour to request that Government will be pleased to address the Government of Bombay on the subject of the transfer of the services of one Mr. F.H. Bradbury, an Inspector in the Aden Police, to the Madras Police for employment as an Inspector here.

2. Mr. Bradbury belongs to a respectable Eurasian family and has already put in 9 years' Government service. I have interviewed him and consider him suitable for an Inspector's appointment. He is 37 years of age and knows Tamil, Hindustani and Mahratti. He has not passed the Matriculation or the Criminal Judicial Test Lower Grade, but he has had 9 years' experience in the Aden Police and has passed the Middle School examination and the Departmental and Law tests necessary for a Police Inspector's post in the Bombay Presidency. I therefore request that he may be exempted from the Matriculation and the Criminal Judicial Test Lower Grade. An application in the prescribed form is enclosed. His present pay is Rs. 125/- but he is willing to come on transfer to an appointment on Rs. 100/-. The acting Political Resident through whom Mr. Bradbury has submitted his petition for transfer has no objection to the transfer. A copy of his service book is herewith enclosed.

3. The department is short of suitable European and Eurasian Inspectors and I therefore recommend that Mr. Bradbury's transfer be approved and sanctioned.

Letter - From the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras.

To the Secretary to the Government of Bombay.

Dated the 23rd September 1909.

No.5154-1.

Mr. F. H. Bradbury, an Inspector in the Aden Police, has applied to the Inspector-General of Police, Madras, for an appointment as Inspector of Police in this Presidency, and the Inspector-General is disposed to regard his application favourably. His Excellency the Governor in Council would be greatly obliged to the Government of Bombay if they would be so good as to favour this Government with information as to Mr.
Bradbury's character and capacity, and I am also directed to enquire whether, if the report on Mr. Bradbury is satisfactory the Government of Bombay will consent to his transfer to this Presidency.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of Mr. Cardew's letter No.5154-1, dated the 23rd September 1909, regarding an application from Mr. F.H.Bradbury of the Aden Police for an appointment as Inspector of Police in the Madras Presidency and in reply to state that the Deputy Superintendent of Police, Aden, reports that Mr. Bradbury's character is good, that he is capable of doing good work and is a good detective. A copy of his service record has, it is understood, been already forwarded by the Political Resident, Aden, to the Inspector General of Police, Madras.

2. I am further to inform you that His Excellency the Governor in Council has no objection to the transfer of Mr. Bradbury's services to the Madras Presidency.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

(Dt. 515A) From the Inspector-General of Police,
No.328, dated 3rd September 1909.

Subject:-

Transfer of the services of Mr. Bradbury of Aden Police to the Madras Police as an Inspector of Police

To Under Secretary.

The Inspector-General of Police requests Government to take steps for the transfer of the services of one Mr. Bradbury of the Aden Police to the Madras Police for employment as an Inspector of Police. It is not clear why the intervention of Government is sought for this transfer. The question seems to be for settlement between the Head of the Aden Police (Political Resident - page 373 of Bombay July Civil list) and the Inspector-General of Police, Madras. No general orders on the subject are traceable. Perhaps the Financial Department may be asked for advise on the point.

2. Application is also made for the exemption of Mr. Bradbury from the Matriculation and the Criminal Judicial Lower Grade in view to his employment as an Inspector in this Presidency.
If the Government are prepared to sanction the exemption, the Inspector-General may perhaps be asked to effect the transfer first (The Political Agent is reported to have no objection to the transfer) and then to apply to Government for his exemption from the examination rules. It seems too soon, it is submitted, to grant the exemption now. From page 5 of Mr. Bradbury's service book it is gathered that he is now on leave in Madras. The Inspector General says that he has interviewed Mr. Bradbury.

For orders.

Chief Secretary.

As the man is in the service of the Govt. of Bombay, it would perhaps be correct to ask that Government to transfer his services if it is decided to accept Mr. Cowie's recommendation.

2. From the last column of the Service Register in the Ct. it will be observed that Bradbury is well reported on by several officers. The last entry, however, is not at all good and would seem to reveal a lack of power to control his men. The Inspector-General's reason for recommending Bradbury is that there is a dearth of suitable Eurasians in the force. If this view is accepted, the Government may exempt the man after the Government of Bombay have agreed to the transfer of his services.

H. M.

I presume this man is a relative of the Inspector of Police (? Supdt.) formerly in the City Force. Hence his willingness to come to Madras on reduced pay. I do not know whether the H. M. (before whom the question of exemption from examination rules will presumably come) is prepared to approve of the proposal of the Acting Inspector-General.

A.G.C. 17-9-09.

*I should say Ro: 100 in Madras was better than Ro: 125 at Aden
M. S.*

The man's experience at Aden might be useful At all events he must, if he is an ordinary smart man, have learnt a good deal and his knowledge would be useful to us. But I should like first to hear from Bombay what they really think of the man. Ask the Bombay Government if ~~you~~ they could kindly let us know what is his real character as a policeman and whether they would be ready to let us have the man if we ~~wanted~~ ^{would} to take him.

Letter to Govt. of Bombay, No.5154-1, d/28-9-09.

From do. " 6804, d/9-11-09.

From the Bombay Government's reply, it is seen that "Mr. Bradbury's character is good that he is capable of doing good work and is a good detective." The Government of Bombay have no objection to Mr. Bradbury's transfer to this Government Presidency.

2. It is for orders whether Mr. Bradbury's transfer is to be sanctioned and whether he may be exempted from the Matriculation examination and the Criminal Dower.
