GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers:—

I

G.O., No. 660, Educational, dated 22nd December 1909.

ABSTRACT.—Informing the Director of Public Instruction that Major Cornwall may begin revising McNally's Sanitary Hand-book for India at his own risk.

II

From—T. FISHER, Esq., Superintendent, Government Press, Madras.
To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department.
Dated—the 10th June 1909.
No.—Dis. 3053.

The Superintendent, Government Press, submits that the 600 copies of McNally's Sanitary Hand-book ordered in G.O., No. 826, Educational, dated 16th December 1905, have been exhausted. Lieut.-Colonel F. C. Reeves, I.M.S., Superintendent of the Royapuram Medical School, has applied for more copies and he states the book is the text-book for the Medical schools in this Presidency and that it will have a steady sale if revised. Captain Cornwall was also of opinion that the book should be revised before being reprinted. The Superintendent solicits orders whether the work may be reprinted and if so whether it should be revised before such reprint. The matter is urgent as copies are said to be required before the opening of the Medical school in July. It is presumed that the profits, if any, of the new edition will be sent to Mrs. McNally, his widow, as per G.O., No. 363, Educational, dated 25th May 1894.

III

Memorandum No. 1170-1, Educational, dated 23rd June 1909.

Referred to the Director of Public Instruction, who is requested to state in consultation with the Sanitary Commissioner whether, in his opinion, the book needs revision, and, if it does, to submit proposals for its revision at a very early date so that the work may be taken in hand without delay.

2. The number of copies that should be printed should also be reported.

(By Order.)

C. A. SOUTER,
Under Secretary to Government.

To the Director of Public Instruction.

IV

Letter—from the Hon'ble Mr. A. G. BOURNE, D.Sc., F.R.S., C.I.E., Director of Public Instruction.
To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department.
Dated—the 24th September 1909.
No.—Ref. on Cur. No. 4424.

With reference to your memorandum No. 1170-1, dated 23rd June 1909, I have the honour to report that I am still in correspondence with regard to the revision of Dr. McNally's Sanitary Hand-book and that I shall submit proposals to Government as soon as complete information on the matter is received.

2. To meet immediate requirements, the Superintendent, Royapuram Medical school, has been informed that students must depend upon second-hand copies of the book pending the issue of the revised edition.

V

Letter—from the Hon'ble Mr. A. G. BOURNE, D.Sc., F.R.S., C.I.E., Director of Public Instruction.
To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department.
Dated—the 21st October 1909.
No.—Ref. on Cur. No. 4424.

In continuation of my letter Ref. on Cur. No. 4424, dated 24th September 1909, I have the honour to state that the Sanitary Commissioner whom I consulted as to the need for revising McNally's Sanitary Hand-book also considers it desirable to have it revised before a fresh edition is printed and is of opinion that the work of revision might again be entrusted to Major Cornwall.

On being communicated with, Major Cornwall expresses his willingness to undertake the work and hopes to be able to finish the manuscript in about three months, and he demands a remuneration of Rs. 1,000 for his task against Rs. 700 allowed to him for similar work in 1903. In justification of the increase in the rate of remuneration he says that since the last revision six years ago a good deal that was then allowed to stand will have to be cut out and rewritten and more matter will also have to be included.

2. As regards the number of copies to be printed, I beg to propose that a revised edition of 1,000 copies may be printed at present.

3. I return herewith the enclosure to the Memorandum of Government No. 1170-1, dated 23rd June last.

VI

Memorandum No. 1170-2, Educational, dated 5th November 1909.

An honorarium of Rs. 700 was paid to Majors Grant and Cornwall to revise McNally's Sanitary Hand-book in 1899 and 1903, respectively. The Superintendent, Government Press, is requested to report whether this honorarium for revising the book was taken into consideration in calculating the profits on the sale before handing them over to Mrs. McNally and what profits were so paid out of the sale of the last two editions of the book.

(By Order.)

C. A. SOUTER,
Under Secretary to Government.

To the Superintendent, Government Press, Madras.

VII

From—T. FISHER, Esq., Superintendent, Government Press, Madras.
To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department.
Dated—the 24th November 1909.
No.—Dis. 5857.

In reply to Memorandum No. 1170-2, Educational, dated 5th November 1909, the Superintendent, Government Press, submits a statement of the profits on the sale of McNally's Sanitary Hand-book, 1894 and 1903 Editions, from which it will be seen that the honorarium of Rs. 700 paid to Major Cornwall for revising the book was taken into account. The 1894 Edition of 1,000 copies (ordered in G.O., No. 363, Educational, dated 25th May 1894) was only a reprint of the first printed in 1889 and the cost of re-publishing it does not appear to have involved any charge for remuneration. It appears from G.O., No. 64, Educational, dated 7th February 1903, that Captain Cornwall did the work instead of Major Grant.

Letter—from R. F. AUSTIN, Esq., I.C.S., Deputy Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational Department.
To—the Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department.
Dated—the 21st December 1909.
No.—2168-2, Educational.

I am directed to address the Government of India on the subject of the payment of an honorarium of Rs. 1,000 to Major J. W. Cornwall, I.M.S., Director of the Pasteur Institute of South India, Coonoor, for revising the late Dr. McNally's Sanitary Hand-book for India.

2. This book was last revised in 1903 by the same officer, who was then granted a remuneration of Rs 700 under the sanction conveyed in Mr. Marris' letter No. 1923, dated 31st December 1903. The usefulness of the book as a text-book in the medical schools of this Presidency still continues and it is believed that it will have a steady sale, if revised. Since the last revision of the book six years ago, a good deal of what is contained in it has become obsolete, and as a thorough revision is needed, the Madras Government propose to pay an honorarium of Rs. 1,000 for carrying it out. His Excellency in Council considers it desirable to entrust the work of revision to Major Cornwall, and I am to request the sanction of the Government of India, under article 72 (c) of the Civil Service Regulations, to the payment of a remuneration of Rs. 1,000 to Major Cornwall, when the work has been completed. The amount of the honorarium will eventually be recouped from the sale-proceeds of the book. As Major Cornwall is very anxious to begin his work, I am to request that the matter may be treated as an urgent one, and orders passed as soon as possible.

In reply to your letter No. 2168-2, dated the 21st December 1909, I am directed to say that the Government of India sanction the payment of an honorarium of Rs. 1,000 to Major J. W. Cornwall, I.M.S., Director of the Pasteur Institute of South India, Coonoor, for revising the late Dr. McNally's Sanitary Hand-book for India.

Order—No. 43, Educational, dated 25th January 1910.

In continuation of G.O., No. 660, Educational, dated 22nd December 1909, the Director of Public Instruction will be informed that the Government of India have sanctioned the payment to Major J. W. Cornwall, I.M.S., of an honorarium of Rs. 1,000 for revising McNally's Sanitary Hand-book for India.

From the Superintendent, Government Press, dated 10th June 1909, No. 3053.

The Superintendent, Government Press, states that the 600 copies of McNally's Sanitary Hand-book reprinted in 1905 have been exhausted and solicits orders as to whether it may again be reprinted and, if so, whether it should be revised before it is reprinted. He states that Lieut.-Colonel Reeves, Superintendent of the Rayapuram Medical School, considers that it should be revised. Captain Cornwall who revised the book in 1903 considered that it might again need revision at the end of five years—vide page 1 of G.O., No. 826, Educational, dated 16th December 1905.

2. The book was last revised in 1903 and 700 copies were then printed, the price being fixed at Rs. 2-8-0 per copy. A reprint consisting of 600 copies was issued in 1905—vide G.O., No. 826, Educational, dated 16th December 1905.

3. The Superintendent's letter may, it is submitted, be referred to the Director of Public Instruction for remarks as to whether, in his opinion, the book needs revision and if he considers that the book should be revised, he may be asked to submit proposals at an early date so that the work may be taken in hand without delay.

Why not send it to Sanitary Commissioner?

C. A. SOUTER—21-6-19.

The copyright of Dr. McNally's Sanitary Hand-book is vested in Government. Paragraph 9 of Government Solicitor's opinion, page 4 of G.O., No. 363, Educational, dated 25th May 1894. The book is prescribed as a text-book for the Hospital Assistant class and the Director of Public Instruction usually submits proposals to Government for its revision and reprinting. It was on the application of the Director of Public Instruction that the book was first reprinted in 1894—vide G.O., No. 363, Educational, dated 25th May 1894. It was again the Director of Public Instruction who submitted proposals for the revision of the book in 1899 and 1903—vide G.Os., No. 841-2, Educational, dated 21st December 1899 and No. 64, Educational, dated 7th February 1903. The Sanitary Commissioner has had nothing to do with the book except in 1905 when Mr. Taylor referred to the Sanitary Commissioner for remarks—page 2 of G.O., No. 826, Educational, dated 16th December 1905, the proposal of the Superintendent, Government Press, to reprint the book.

The Director of Public Instruction should report, I submit, in consultation with the Sanitary Commissioner.

[Memorandum No. 1170-1, Educational, dated 23rd June 1909.]

From the Director of Public Instruction, dated 21st October 1909, No. 1424.

The Director of Public Instruction reports that he consulted the Sanitary Commissioner on the subject and that the latter is of opinion that the book should be revised before the next edition is printed and that the work of revision might be entrusted to Major Cornwall. The Director of Public Instruction then communicated with Major Cornwall who is willing to undertake the work for a remuneration of Rs. 1,000 (one thousand) as against Rs. 700 in 1903 (vide G.O., No. 64, dated 7th February 1903). In justification of the increase of Rs. 300 in the remuneration Major Cornwall is stated to urge that much of the matter already contained in the book will have to be cut out and re-written and that more matter will also have to be included.

2. The previous sanction of the Government of India in the Finance Department is necessary for the payment of the remuneration to Major Cornwall—vide article 72 (c) of the Civil Service Regulations. On the last occasion (1903) this sanction was obtained after the work had been completed—vide G.Os., Nos. 607, 608, Educational, and 16, Educational, dated 8th December 1903, and 8th January 1904 respectively; but in resolution of the Government of India, No. 7483-Ex., dated 9th December 1903, recorded in G.O., No. 912, Financial, dated 23rd December 1903, it was pointed out that such a course was irregular and the Government of India insisted on strict adherence to the provisions of article 72 (c) of Civil Service Regulations. The sanction of the Government of India to the remuneration has therefore to be obtained before the work is begun.

3. As to the number of copies of the revised edition the Director of Public Instruction suggests that 1,000 copies may be printed.

4. It is for consideration whether the Director of Public Instruction's proposals may be accepted and the Government of India addressed.

C.R.V.—28-10-09.

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—29-10-09.

Major Cornwall last revised the hand-book and seems the proper person to revise it again. Perhaps the fee of Rs. 1,000 may be accepted and the Government of India addressed to sanction it.

C. A. SOUTER—30-10-09.

Orders may issue as suggested by Under Secretary.

W. FRANCIS—2-11-09.

Yes. We should ask India to sanction this grant of Rs. 1,000. I presume this grant is taken into consideration, when calculating the profits on the sale, before handing them over to Mrs. McNally. It will be well to ask the Superintendent, Government Press, if this is so and ask him what profits have been paid over out of the sale of the past two issues of the work.

Do this first please?

The Superintendent, Government Press, reports that the honorarium of Rs. 700 paid to Major Cornwall was taken into consideration, when calculating the profits on the sale, before handing them over to Mrs. McNally. The profits paid over to Mrs. McNally out of the sale of the past two issues of the work, namely, the 1894 and 1903 editions, amounted to Rs. 2,883 and Rs. 927-4-0, respectively. A sum of Rs. 435-3-0 still remain to be remitted to Mrs. McNally out of the sale-proceeds of the 1903 edition.
