Lawrence Asylum Rules.

Approving the definition of the term "income" proposed by the Lawrence Asylum Committee and inserting it as a note to rule 42 of the —.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

Letter—from W. FRANCIS, Esq., I.C.S., Vice-Chairman, Ootacamund Lawrence Asylum.

To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department (through the Director of Public Instruction).

Dated—Ootacamund, the 20th December 1909.

No.—3057.

No. 42 of the rules of the Lawrence Asylum says that certain classes of parents of children at the asylum shall pay towards the children's upkeep there in accordance with a scale based on their "income". This word "income" is not defined in that rule and some of the parents have recently raised questions as to its exact meaning, as, for example, whether it should be taken to mean only pay of rank or should include such extra emoluments as staff pay, charge allowance, etc.

2. The Committee of the Asylum referred the point to Colonel G. J. Shaw, Assistant Adjutant-General, 9th Division, and one of the members of the Committee, and he suggested that "income" should be defined as under :—

" 'Income' means the pay and allowances, staff or consolidated pay, exchange compensation allowance, charge allowance and all other items of personal remuneration drawn by an individual, but does not include horse allowance if drawn as a separate item, office and contract allowances, ration money, messing allowance, clothing allowance, or subsistence allowance for wife and children."

3. It will be seen that this definition requires parents to pay a proportion of all items of pay and allowances which can be considered to be personal remuneration but excludes allowances given for a specific purpose other than personal remuneration and with the intention that they shall be spent wholly upon that purpose, such as horse allowance. It is comprehensive and includes all the heads under which parents draw pay and allowances.

4. At its meeting of the 10th instant the Committee approved the definition in the resolution of which I submit copy and I beg to request that Government will sanction its embodiment in the Lawrence Asylum rules so that there may be no doubt in the matter hereafter.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 50, EDUCATIONAL, DATED 28TH JANUARY 1910.

[SUBJECT.—Lawrence Asylum Rules.]

From the Director of Public Instruction, dated 18th January 1910, No. 8503.

Under rule 42 of the Lawrence Asylum Rules, soldiers who are above the rank of corporal shall pay towards the upkeep of their children at the Asylum in accordance with a scale based on their income. But the word "income" is not defined in the rules and some parents, the Lawrence Asylum Committee states, have recently raised the question as to the exact meaning of the word "income".

2. The Committee referred the point to Col. G. J. Shaw, Assistant Adjutant-General, Ninth Division, one of the members of the Committee, and he has suggested the following definition :—

" 'Income' means the pay and allowances, staff or consolidated pay, exchange "compensation allowance, charge allowance and all other items of personal remuneration drawn by an individual, but does not include horse allowance if drawn as a "separate item, office and contract allowances, ration money, messing allowance, "clothing allowance, or subsistence allowance for wife and children."

3. The Committee considers the definition to be very suitable and comprehensive and requests that it may be embodied in the Asylum rules.

4. It is for consideration whether the recommendation of the Committee may be accepted. If it is accepted, the draft submitted may issue.

T.K.—25-1-10.

The definition of "income" may be approved and may be added as a note to rule 42.
