JEPPE HIGH SCHOOL,
11th December 1908.

DEAR GREEN,

You understand of course, that it is contrary to Departmental regulations for me to offer you a testimonial, but I feel that after the very valuable work that you have undertaken so successfully during the last three years, it would be unnatural to allow you to leave without some acknowledgment of my indebtedness to you.

The marked success of your pupils in both your subjects, History and English, in the Cape Matriculation and Intermediate, and also in the Transvaal school certificate denotes clearly not only your grasp of the subjects, but also exceptional power as a schoolmaster.

Discipline must be peculiarly easy to you, for although I have never noticed any effort on your part, yet, if my memory is correct, there has not been a single instance of any disorder in your classes.

High as my opinion is of your capabilities in the class-room, still I believe the school will suffer as much from the loss of your personal influence, and quiet but energetic co-operation in all branches of the school life.

You leave behind you an impression of strength, ability and tact.

As editor and promoter of the school magazine your success is great.

I can only regret your decision not to continue work for which you are so eminently suited.

(Yours, etc.)

J. H. A. PAYNE, M.A.,
Trin. Hall, Camb.,
Headmaster.

ALL SOULS COLLEGE, OXFORD,
October 23rd, 1909.

I have much pleasure in bearing testimony to the sterling qualities of Mr. E. W. Green, late Exhibitioner of University College, Oxford. He is a hard worker and a man of good sound common sense. He knows English History and some parts of Foreign History very well as well as Political Economy and Political Science. He would, I should expect, prove himself a good teacher and disciplinarian, although I have had no experience of his gifts in those directions. In any case, he would be certain to be a thoroughly trustworthy and competent colleague.

A. H. JOHNSON,
Sometime Fellow of All Souls
Lecturer in Modern History to University College.

DENSTONE COLLEGE, STAFFORDSHIRE.
June 5th, 1900.

I have much pleasure in bearing testimony to the high character of Mr. Edward Wastie Green who was my pupil at Denstone College for some years previous to his going up to the University. His conduct was uniformly good, and he was one of the most steady painstaking and intelligent boys in the school.

His natural fondness of English Literature disposed him to read for the History School at Oxford somewhat to the disappointment of his Latin and Greek Masters here who had always regarded him as an unusually promising classical scholar.

As a Prefect in the school he possessed the knack of discipline and I believe he would prove a very valuable and loyal assistant to any headmaster.

He is athletic, full of energy and a thorough gentleman.

D. EDWARDES, M.A.,
Headmaster.

WORKSOP COLLEGE, NOTTS,
November 1st, 1901.

Mr. E. Wastie Green, B.A., late Exhibitor of University College, Oxford, tells me he is seeking educational work, and I have great pleasure in bearing testimony to my very high opinion of his character and talents.

At Denstone I knew him intimately in various capacities—as a member of the Sixth Form and a Prefect, as Editor of the School Magazine (of which I was Censor) and as a useful member of the foot-ball team. In all these he was energetic and efficient, conscientious, painstaking and successful. His literary abilities are naturally good and have been fostered by careful and steady work, and the success he met with at Oxford has been in no way more than I anticipated.

His public school and University experience—many sided and practical—would make him a useful addition to the staff of any school, and I am sure he would be found a valuable and efficient teacher. His literary tastes would make his lessons vigorous and fruitful; and his agreeable social qualities would make him a pleasant and loyal colleague.

I could recommend him with every anticipation that he would give full satisfaction.

of St. John's College, Cambridge: Thirlwall and Seatonian Prizes in the University;
late Master and Sub-Bursar at Denstone College.

AGREEMENT made the twenty eighth day of December one thousand nine hundred and nine BETWEEN EDWARD WASTIE GREEN of Caston, Attleboro, Norfolk, of the first part and THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR INDIA IN COUNCIL of the second part.

WHEREAS the Secretary of State for India in Council has engaged the party of the first part to serve His Majesty in India as a Member of the Indian Educational Service and Professor of History at the Presidency College, Madras, for the term of two years from the date of his reporting his arrival at Madras as hereinafter mentioned and subject to the conditions and agreements hereinafter contained:

NOW THESE PRESENTS WITNESS and the said parties hereto respectively agree as follows:—

(1) That the party of the first part will, on being provided with a first-class passage to Madras, proceed thither within such time as may be prescribed by the Secretary of State for India in Council.

(2) That the party of the first part will on arrival at Madras forthwith report himself to the Officers of Government there and will submit himself to the orders of the Government and of the Officers and authorities under whom he may from time to time be placed by the Government and that he will at all times obey the rules prescribed for the time being for the regulation of the branch of the public service to which he may belong and will when required by the Local Government proceed to any other part of the province within which he may be serving and there perform the duties of any specified office in the cadre of the Indian Educational Service of the province. If he shall be retained in the service after the expiration of the said term of two years he will when required by the Government proceed to any other province in India and there perform the duties of any specified office in the cadre of the Indian Educational Service of that province.

(3) That the party of the first part will devote his whole time to the duties of the service and will not engage directly or indirectly in any trade, business or occupation on his own account and that he will not (except in case of accident or sickness certified by competent medical authority) absent himself from his said duties without having first obtained permission from the Government or its authorised officers.

(4) That if the party of the first part shall during the said term of two years or if the service shall continue beyond such term during the next succeeding three years relinquish the service of the Government (whether after having given notice or otherwise) he shall forthwith on demand pay to the Secretary of State for India in Council the cost of his passage to Madras.

(5) That from the date of the party of the first part reporting his arrival at Madras the Government will pay him, so long as he shall remain in the said service and actually perform his duties, a salary at the rate of Rupees five hundred per mensem for the first year and Rupees five hundred and fifty per mensem for the second year. And if he shall remain in the service beyond that period then Rupees six hundred per mensem for the third year rising by annual increments of Rupees fifty per mensem to Rupees one thousand per mensem.

(6) That the Government may at any time during the said term of two years or if the service shall continue beyond such term, at any time thereafter, dispense with the service of the party of the first part without notice in the event of misconduct on his part or of a breach by him of any of the conditions herein specified.

(7) That on the determination of the service at the expiration of the said term of two years but not upon any subsequent determination or if prior to the expiration of the said term of two years the party of the first part shall be compelled by ill-health (certified to the satisfaction of the Government) to give up the service and shall actually quit the same in India, the Government will provide him with a first-class passage back to England at the public expense, provided he claims such passage within three months from any such determination of the service as is mentioned in this clause and leaves India on his return to England within such time as he may be directed.

No. 57, EDUCATIONAL, 1ST FEBRUARY 1910.

(8) That the party of the first part shall within the said term of two years pass such examination as may be prescribed by the Government in one of the vernacular languages, and if he shall fail to do so, the Government may, notwithstanding anything contained in the next clause, dispense with his services.

(9) That unless he, the party of the first part, shall receive notice in writing from some authorised Officer of the Government three calendar months before the expiration of the said term of two years that Government no longer require his services or unless he shall give notice in writing to the Government three calendar months before the expiration of the said term of two years that he is desirous to put an end to his service under these presents, he will continue in the service of Government upon the like terms and conditions as are herein contained, so far as the same are applicable, except that he shall not be entitled to receive or required to give notice of termination of his service under Government otherwise than as provided in the Civil Service Regulations for the time being in force or any other rules to which he may be made subject.

(10) That if the party of the first part shall continue to serve Government under these presents after the said term of two years his service (commencing from the date of his entering on the performance of his duties as aforesaid) shall count as service towards leave and pension under such rules as regards leave and pension as may for the time being be applicable to his case. Provided always that in case of any dispute as to the interpretation of any of the said rules or otherwise relating in any way to them the decision of the Secretary of State for India in Council shall be conclusive.

(11) That in any payments which may be made in Great Britain under these presents the rate of exchange between England and India fixed from time to time by the Secretary of State for India in Council in communication with the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury shall be observed.

(12) That the proceedings, letters and reports of the Governor-General of India in Council, or of any of the Local Governments and of all others the Officers and Agents of Government or any copies thereof or extracts therefrom which shall be sent officially to the Secretary of State for India in Council, or to any officers or servants in the Indian Service of His Majesty in England or elsewhere in any way relating to the sums of money to be paid or allowed to the party of the first part or to his conduct, or in any way relating to the premises, shall be received as conclusive evidence of any matter therein contained in any action or in any legal proceedings by or between the parties to these presents or in any way relating thereto.

IN WITNESS whereof the party of the first part and SIR WILLIAM LEE WARNER, K.C.S.I., and SIR THOMAS RALEIGH, K.C.S.I., being two members of the Council of India have hereunto set their hands the day and year first above written.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SECRETARIAT.

(a) If a paper is marked to be printed urgently, the Superintendent of the section concerned should sign the Press slip. The Superintendent should exercise a careful discretion in the matter.

(b) Each letter, memorandum, or order, or set of orders, in the file of correspondence should be headed in succession with the Roman numeral I, II, III, etc., the number being written in red ink or blue chalk above the item. The particular papers to be printed in the special issue-copies should be indicated by the Roman numeral (I, II, etc.) by which that item has been headed in the correspondence file. All matter, including marginal remarks or references, to be printed should be written in ink and matter which should not be printed should be encircled. Initials and signatures that are not quite legible should be re-written distinctly.

(b¹) For rules regarding printing of notes, see the rules in G.O., No. 1220, Public, dated 30th November 1900.

(c) The number of copies and the details of distribution should be filled in by the Superintendent or Referencer concerned.

(d) In the absence of special instructions to the Press to keep matter standing for a specified period, ordinary papers of 8 pages and under will be kept standing for one week, and larger papers for two weeks only. The type of notes and of all confidential papers is distributed immediately after striking.

(e) This slip, properly and completely filled in, should accompany every paper sent to Press; it will be returned by the Press when proofs are furnished; it should be sent to the Press when a call is made for revised proofs or when a corrected proof is sent for striking. When finally returned by Press it should be filed with the original order or letter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PRESS.

(a) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent of the Press, a paper has been marked urgent unnecessarily, he should send the Press slip to the Deputy Registrar with a remark to that effect.

(b) Unless a note to the contrary is made against the matter, pencil entries should not be printed. The Superintendent of the Press may bring to the notice of the Deputy Registrar any instance of incomplete or careless editing.

(c) Signature copies of letters to the Secretary of State or to the Government of India should be printed on hand-made paper.

(d) This slip should be returned by the Press to the Secretariat when proofs are furnished; it will be sent back to the Press when proofs are returned corrected and should be finally returned to the Secretariat when struck-off copies are supplied.

(e) The names of the Secretary and Members should be printed in full when they occur on the right hand side, but only the first time when they appear on the left side, the initials alone being printed later.
