To
The Honorable Mr A. G. Carolew
Ma. I.C.'s
Revenue Secretary
Madras Govt.

Dear Sir,
The Madras Theosophical Society
of which I am the President maintains,
you are aware, a free public library of Religions, philosophical, historical & scientific books. It owes you a debt of gratitude for the privileges of the Editor's table extended to it by the Madras Government, & for several vols of the Gazetteer of India.

It was formerly receiving financially the Museum - now understand that the Government have published in 7 vols. The Castes & Tribes of S. India by Mr Edgar Thurston of the Museum. I read a portion of it. The volumes will be useful to give correct ideas of the South Indian Ethnology. May I request you to favor the Madura Theosophical Library with these volumes? The library is greatly appreciated by people, especially by the students as it is located near the College & the High schools.

I remain dear Sir
 Your obedient servant

P. Narayanaiah

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational Department.

Sir,

With reference to Endorsement
Paying CT. No. 171-1 Educational, dated 31st Jan'y. 1910 on the application (herewith returned) from the Madras Theosophical Society for the supply to it, free of cost, of a set of Mr. Thurston's "Castles and Tribes of Southern India", I have the honour to state that I am not aware of any special reasons for complying with the Society's request. I would observe that there are libraries in Madras and in the Moffussil which appear to have a better claim to such favourable treatment, but which under the distribution sanctioned in G. O. No. 34 Educational dated 18th January 1909 have not been supplied L

with free copies of the publication.

I have the honour to be
Sir
Your most obedient servant,
J. R. Henderson.

NOTES.

C. No. 171 From the President, Theosophical Society, ^{Madura}, dated 15th January 1900.

SUBJECT. Free supply of Mr. Thurston's "Castes and Tribes of Southern India."

The President of the Theosophical Society of Madura, requests that the Society may be furnished, free of cost, with a set of Mr. Thurston's "Castes and Tribes of Southern India"

2. The Society is a sort of Literary and Philosophical Institute in which questions of religious, philosophical and scientific interest are discussed and papers thereon read - vide Mr. Cardew's note on pages 35 + 36 of Gono 85, Fnl (Books) d/

N. 24th November 1903. The Library of the Association is a free library + is open to the public from 8 AM. to 6 P.M. every day.

The Society is already on the list of institutions which are supplied with Govt. Museum Bulletins - vide Gono 85 Fnl

N. (Books) 24th November 1903. It is also enjoying the privilege of getting all the papers relating to literary, scientific ^{and historical} ~~or otherwise~~

M. placed on E.T - Gono 21. R. Fnl (Books) d/ 30-1-06. and Please see also No. 42 on page 4 of Gono 359 Pub d/ 25th May

E. 1909.

3. The Superintendent, Govt. Museum, to whom the present request of the Society was referred, for remarks, states that he is not aware of any special reasons for complying with the Society's request and observes that "there are libraries in Madras and the Maffessil which appear to have a better claim to such favourable treatment but which have not been supplied with free copies of the publication."

vide distribution list
in Gono 34 Rev L.

4. It is for consideration whether the request of the Theosophical Society may be complied with. The seven volumes of the book applied for cost Rs 17-8-0 at Rs 2-8-0 a volume - vide pages of Gono 444 Reddy

A. 28th July 1909.

PD
14-2-10

Please find out whether a copy of Mr. Thurston's 'Ethnographic Notes' was supplied to this Society.

PD
14-2-10

The Theosophical Society, Madras, has not been supplied with a copy of Mr. Thurston's Ethnographic notes in Southern India - please ^{see} telephone messages at slip IX.

PD
16-2-10

There does not appear to be any good ground for supplying this Society with a copy of Mr. Thurston's Castes and Tribes of Southern India free of cost. If this application is complied with, there will surely be many other applications for a similar concession, which it will perhaps be hard to refuse. If the Society wants to have a copy of the book, it must purchase it.

16-2-10

May be refused.
