THE HONORABLE THE JUDGES OF THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE,
M a d r a s.

Through

A.C. DUTT, Esq., I.C.S.,

District and Sessions Judge,

K i s t n a.

My Lords,

In enclosing herein copies of previous correspondence in connection with my application for permanent exemption from the Examination Rules, I beg to submit as follows.

2. I submitted on the 16th March 1909, an application praying Your Lordships that I might be recommended to Government for exemption from passing the Matriculation Examination to enable me to appear for the Special Test Examinations, which Mr. Elwin, the then District Judge, forwarded to the High Court with his recommendation; Your Lordships were also pleased to forward it to the Government but without a recommendation with the result that the Government had to reject my prayer. - Govt. 225606 - F.
18.4.09

3. I respectfully beg to bring to Your Lordships' notice that the High Court will not be in a position to form any opinion of the work &c. of a person serving in any mufassil Court unless the District Munsif or the District Judge, under whom he may be serving, recommends him as a fit person for such exemption. In my case, Mr. Elwin was, I think, pleased with my work and recommended me.

4. I submit that, besides the Typewriting Intermediate, I have passed Shorthand Intermediate as well, and have several times taken Shorthand notes of judgments of Messrs. Hannay and Dutt, and I may venture to state that both the Judges ^{we} are pleased with my work. I urge these facts only to show that, had my knowledge of English been short of the Matriculation standard, standard, I would not have been able to report judgments as correctly as I have been doing, and Mr. Elwin would not have supported my application. In fact, as set forth in my previous application, though I was twice unsuccessful in the Matriculation Examination owing to my deficiency first in Mathematics and latterly in Science, I was on both the occasions well off in English and the remaining subjects.

5. I may also respectfully add for Your Lordships' secondary consideration that it will be a hard lot for me to have to work on the machine till the end of my service with constant strain on the fingers and with the probable chance of being ^{contracting} attacked by the "Typist's paralysis." And in order to qualify myself for another kind of office work, I should pass the Special Tests, which I cannot do with my present general educational qualifications.

6. I therefore humbly and respectfully pray that Your Lordships may, on a kind consideration of all the facts, be graciously pleased to recommend my poor case to the Government and get me exempted from passing the Matriculation Examination or the Upper Secondary Examination (compulsory portion only, as I have already completed the optionals, viz., Typewriting and Shorthand, both Intermediate Grade) in order that I may appear for the Special Tests.

For which act of kindness, I shall, as in duty bound, ever pray.

I beg to remain,

My Lords,

Your most obedient and humble servant,

District and Sessions Court,
Kistna, Masulipatam, 23-1-10.
