Letter from A. Wolfertan, Esq., Assistant Collector of Sea Customs in Charge, Madras, to the Secretary to the Commissioner of Salt, Abkari and Separate Revenue, Chepauk, Madras,
No.C.R.4373/09, dated the 16th December 1909:-

I have the honor to invite the attention of the Board to Board's Proceedings, R.No.2697, Salt, dated 17th August 1908 and R. No.91, Salt, dated 9th January 1909 with the first of which was communicated the order of Government sanctioning the exemption of preventive officer, Mr. W. H. Homer of this Custom-house from passing the Sea Customs Test for a period of one year and with the second the Government Order in which it was considered unnecessary to consider then his exemption for a further period for the reason that he would have two chances of appearing for the test by the time the original period would have expired.
Now that the period of exemption has already expired and the officer has not yet passed the test nor the tests A. B & F by the lower grade as required by Government Order No.548, Educational, dated 6th October 1909 communicated with Board's Proceedings R. No.3619, Salt, dated 30th November 1909 which also requires that tests C & E should also be passed, within one year from the date of the notification, I beg to submit his case again for the consideration of the Board.

2. Mr. Homer is reported to be a careful officer and to have done his work uniformly well, but I do not think that there is much chance of his passing the abovementioned tests even if he is allowed a further period of one year. I therefore recommend that he may be permanently exempted from passing Tests
A. B & F and temporarily C.E. & G.

C. No. 45 From the Board of Revenue No. 2686, dated 3. 1. 1900.

SUBJECT. Exemption from the examination of Mr. Homer, Preventive officer, Madras Custom House.

The Board of Revenue recommends the permanent exemption from Salt Tests A, B and F and the temporary exemption from the tests C, E and G until the publication of the results of the examinations to be held in January 1911, of Mr. W. H. Homer, Preventive officer of the Madras Custom House.

A. 2. In Gono 595 Eeddy 14. 8. 08, the Govt sanctioned his permanent exemption from the Upper Secondary examination and also his temporary exemption from the Translation test, Lower Grade, and the Sea Customs Test, for a period of one year. Subsequently he was permanently exempted from the Translation test, Lower Grade - vide Gono 8 Eeddy

C. 6th January 1909. The grounds on which the present application is made are given in Mr. Wolferstan's letter on page 3 of C.F. The tests A, B and F were ~~made obligatory by the~~ ^{prescribed for certain appointments} in the Customs Branch only by ~~notification issued with~~ ^{Gono 548 Eeddy 6-10-09, 7 years} after Mr. Homer was appointed, as a Preventive officer, in that Branch.

3. It is for consideration whether the Board's recommendation may be accepted. The remarks of the Revenue Dept may be obtained w.o. in the first instance.

general ~~department~~ other duties, the recommendation may, if it is submitted, be accepted; but the order may state that the exemption will hold good only for appointments held by Mr. Homer in the Madras Custom House.

2. As regards Test C (Accounts) the ^{Cour.} Board recommends that he may be temporarily exempted until the results of the Examination to be held in January 1911 are known. Submitted that the ~~Board's~~ recommendation may be supported in Revenue.

Ibid -

3. The ^{Cour.} Board also recommends that Mr. Homer may be similarly exempted in respect of Test E (linguistic). In G.O. No. 8 Educ., dt 6.1.1909 he was permanently exempted from passing Translation Test (lower) on the ground that the duties of Preventive Officer are such that a knowledge either of Telugu or Tamil is not necessary for their efficient discharge. ~~and~~ In accordance with the above argument, Mr. Homer may be permanently Exempted from passing Test E also. But if it thought that Test E, ^{being} an easier one than Translation Lower, ~~and~~ can be passed more easily, the ^{Cour's} ~~Board's~~ recommendation may be supported in this Dept.

4. As regards Test G (Customs) Lower, Mr. Homer was temporarily exempted for one year from passing the old Sea Customs test. ~~Then~~ both Mr. Wolferstan now recommends that Mr. Homer may be given time till the ~~results~~ of the examination to be held in Jan'y 1911. Submitted that Rev. may support this.

The file may be ~~pass~~ returned to the Educational Dept with the above remarks.

E. (Linguistic) is not much good to him. He might be permanently exempted from A. B. E. so long as he is employed in the Customs House. He might be given time to pass C. F. & G. There may be some doubt about F (Excise) but it would seem to be useful to a Provision Office.
