Reformatory Schools.

Addressing the Government of India on the subject of the interchange of juvenile offenders between the — of the various provinces in India.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

Read—the following papers:—

I

Letter—from H. G. Stokes, Esq., I.C.S., Deputy Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Education).
To—the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational Department.
Dated—Calcutta, the 9th December 1909.
No.—1004.

I am directed to forward a copy of a letter * received from the Government of Bengal suggesting the issue of general orders by the Governor-General in Council, under section 15 (1) of the Reformatory Schools Act, 1897 (VIII of 1897), for the transfer of juvenile offenders who are natives of other provinces and convicted in Bengal to the Reformatory Schools of their own provinces and for the transfer of juvenile offenders who are natives of Bengal and are convicted in other provinces to the Hazaribagh Reformatory School.

* No. 4243, dated 18th November 1909.

2. The Governor-General in Council has sanctioned an interchange of such offenders between the Reformatory Schools of the Madras and the Bombay Presidencies but, before passing orders on the proposal made by the Government of Bengal, desires to be informed whether the extension of the arrangement to other provinces is considered necessary and whether His Excellency in Council has any objection to it.

Enclosure.

Letter—from J. G. Cumming, Esq., I.C.S., Secretary to the Government of Bengal, General Department.
To—the Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department.
Dated—Calcutta, the 18th November 1909.
No.—4243-Education.

I am directed to submit the following matter for the consideration and orders of the Government of India.

2. Under the orders contained in Mr. Marris' letter No. 732, dated the 28th September 1906, boys released from the Reformatory School in Bengal are kept under the observation of officers of the Education Department for a period of three years, and during this term of surveillance well-behaved boys receive certain rewards in money through the agency of special Deputy Inspectors of Schools.

3. There are instances in which boys who are natives of other provinces are detained in the Hazaribagh Reformatory School. Enquiries were therefore made as to whether arrangements exist in other provinces for the surveillance of boys who, on release from the Reformatory, have returned to their native country. The information received shows that the system of rewards introduced into Bengal is not at work in all provinces. As special funds have to be provided and arrangements for the supervision of the boys and the payment of the rewards have to be made, it has been considered inexpedient to involve other provinces in a scheme which is only on its trial in Bengal.

4. The Director of Public Instruction, Bengal, has ascertained that, under the sanction of the Government of India, boys from the Bombay Presidency convicted in Madras are transferred to the Bombay Reformatory and vice versâ. The Director accordingly proposes that the system sanctioned for Madras and Bombay should be extended to Bengal, and the boys of other provinces and presidencies convicted in Bengal transferred to the Reformatory of their own province or presidency while boys from Bengal convicted outside this province should be transferred to the Hazaribagh Reformatory School. The Lieutenant-Governor accepts the Director's view, and I am to request that the Government of India may be pleased to sanction the proposal under section 15 (1) of the Reformatory Schools Act (VIII of 1897).

II

Memorandum No. 2270-1, Educational, dated 21st December 1909.

The Director of Public Instruction is requested to be good enough to ascertain and report whether there are in the Reformatory School at Chingleput boys who are natives of other provinces and, if so, how many of them there are and to what provinces they belong.

(By Order.)

C. A. Souter,
Under Secretary to Government.

To

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA,
HOME DEPARTMENT.

Dated Fort St. George, the 16th March 1910.

SIR,

I am directed to reply to Mr. Stokes' letter No. 1004-Education, dated 9th December 1909, inviting the opinion of this Government on the proposed extension to other provinces of the system of interchange of juvenile offenders between the Reformatory Schools of the Madras and Bombay Presidencies which was sanctioned by the Government of India in Home Department letter No. 843, dated 23rd October 1907. The Government of India desire to be informed whether the extension of the arrangement to other provinces is considered necessary and whether the Government of Madras have any objection to it.

2. I am directed to state that the Governor in Council is in favour of the extension of the arrangement, provided it is clearly understood that before any transfer of juveniles from one province to another is made the previous consent of the Government of the province to which the transfer is to be made is obtained.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., Nos. 123-24, EDUCATIONAL, DATED 16TH MARCH 1910.

[SUBJECT.—Transfer of Juveniles from the Reformatory Schools in one Province to the Reformatory Schools in another Province.]

From the Government of India, dated 9th December 1909, No. 1004.

The Government of Bengal has suggested the issue of general orders by the Government of India, under section 15 (1) of the Reformatory Schools Act, 1897, for the transfer of juvenile offenders who are natives of other provinces and convicted in Bengal, to the Reformatory schools of their own provinces, and for the transfer of juvenile offenders who are natives of Bengal and are convicted in other provinces to the Hazaribagh Reformatory school. The Government of India observe that they have sanctioned an interchange of such offenders between the Reformatory schools of the Madras and Bombay Presidencies (vide Mr. Fell's letter No. 843, dated 23rd October 1907 on page 2 of G.O., No. 789, Educational, dated 23rd November 1907), and before passing orders on the proposal made by the Government of Bengal, they desire to be informed whether the extension of the arrangement to other provinces is considered necessary and whether His Excellency in Council has any objection to it.

2. There appears to be no objection to the extension of the arrangement to other provinces but before replying to India, the Director of Public Instruction may, it is submitted, be consulted unofficially.

T.K.—15-12-09.

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—15-12-09.

There seems no objection to the proposal.

C. A. SOUTER—15-12-09.

There will probably be no objection, but is it necessary ?, is what Government of India wants to know. Have we still any boys belonging to other Presidencies and are there any boys of this Presidency detained in reformatories outside it ? Enquire from Director of Public Instruction and from other Governments.

R. F. AUSTIN—16-12-09.

Drafts submitted for approval.

2. It is for consideration whether the reference to other Governments should go to all Local Governments and Administrations or only to the Governments of such provinces as adjoin the Madras Presidency.

The enquiry may be general.

[Letter No. 2270-3, dated 17th February 1910.]

From the Government of the United Provinces, dated 17th February 1910, No. 131/X V.-351.

The Director of Public Instruction reports that except two boys—one belonging to the Native State of Mysore and the other to that of Travancore—there are no boys in the Reformatory School, Chingleput, who are natives of other provinces.

2. Of the five Governments who were addressed on the subject the Governments of the Central Provinces, the Punjab and the United Provinces write to say that the Reformatory schools of those provinces do not contain any boys belonging to the Madras Presidency; while the Governments of Burma and Bengal state that the Reformatory schools of those provinces contain 18 and 3 boys, respectively, who are natives of this Presidency.

3. It is for consideration whether the Government of India may be informed that this Government have no objection to the extension to other provinces of the system of interchange of juvenile offenders which has been sanctioned by the Government of India in the case of the Madras and Bombay Presidencies in Home Department letter No. 843, Educational, dated 23rd October 1907.

Page 2 of G.O., No. 789, Educational, dated 23rd November 1907.

P.R.—28-2-10.

K. Rangaswami Aiyangar—28-2-10.

The Government of India order of 23rd October 1907 in G.O., No. 789, Educational, dated 23rd November 1907, amounts to a delegation to the Local Governments concerned, if they are agreed about a particular case, of the power reserved to the Government of India by section 15 of the Reformatories Act, 1907. The generalising of this order may, it is submitted, be acquiesced in or sought on the ground that it would be a desirable measure of decentralisation, Local Governments being competent to arrange such matters between themselves without the intervention of the Government of India.

2. Bengal however want to go further apparently. They want other provinces to take back their own juvenile offenders in every case. In Bengal there is a reason for this—that Bengal spend money on juvenile offenders after release. The proposed exchanges might be accepted generally as between Madras and Bengal; but there seems to be no reason why Madras should accept the return of all juvenile offenders that Burma, say, might try and foist on it.

3. The answer might be that there is no objection to the generalisation of the order in G.O., No. 789, Educational, dated 23rd November 1907, if it is understood that the Madras Government will be merely at liberty, but not bound, to accept the return of a Madras juvenile sentenced in another province. It might be very inconvenient to have a large batch of juveniles from, say, Burma, sent at short notice to Chingleput.

A. Galletti—2-3-10.

L. M. Wynch—5-3-10.

As I read the Bengal letter, that Government desires merely that the arrangement now existing between us and Bombay should be extended. That order authorized the transfer whenever occasion required of juvenile offenders who are natives of Bombay from Chingleput to Yeraoda. But no transfer from Bombay was sanctioned.

In paragraph 2 of his letter Mr. Stokes speaks of an interchange having been sanctioned.

L. M. Wynch.

I see no objection to the extension provided it is understood that the Government to which transfer is to be made must consent before the transfer is made.

The boys of Madras now in Burma and Bengal, though Madrasees probably have no homes here and are really inhabitants of Burma and Bengal and we should object to have them. Tell India we have no objection on this understanding.

(e) This slip, properly and completely filled in, should accompany every paper sent to Press; it will be returned by the Press when proofs are furnished; it should be sent to the Press when a call is made for revised proofs or when a corrected proof is sent for striking. When finally returned by Press it should be filed with the original order or letter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PRESS.

(a) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent of the Press, a paper has been marked urgent unnecessarily, he should send the Press slip to the Deputy Registrar with a remark to that effect.

(b) Unless a note to the contrary is made against the matter, pencil entries should not be printed. The Superintendent of the Press may bring to the notice of the Deputy Registrar any instance of incomplete or careless editing.

(c) Signature copies of letters to the Secretary of State or to the Government of India should be printed on hand-made paper.

(d) This slip should be returned by the Press to the Secretariat when proofs are furnished; it will be sent back to the Press when proofs are returned corrected and should be finally returned to the Secretariat when struck-off copies are supplied.

(e) The names of the Secretary and Members should be printed in full when they occur on the right hand side, but only the first time when they appear on the left side, the initials alone being printed later.
