This is all very fine, but as the L.A. is always asking for money as it deserves a considerable part of its income from the L.A. Press, the L.A. is not altogether uninterested in the welfare of the L.A. Press. Mr. Fisher is a good man of business & a machine printer was some meaning that the L.A. P. was being properly managed - now we have Mr. Fisher & Rev. Cox, two men who know nothing about printing & very little & say about business left in charge. The result may be a great step in the Press at any time - Please ask ^{Mr. Francis} ~~Mr. Francis~~ D.O. to report who has been appointed as one of the agents of the Trust for the Press in place of Mr. Fisher.

My dear Wynch,

Your D.O. 315-1 dated 3rd inst asking when the Committee of the Lawrence Asylum, as Trustees of the L.A. Press, propose to appoint as Agent in place of Fisher resigned.

The Trustees considered the matter at their meeting of 25th Feb., and resolved to accept Fisher's resignation and ask Gordon Fraser to serve in his place. The two existing Agents, Formby and Archdeacon Cox, suggested him and said they understood from him that he would serve if asked officially by the Trustees.

Gordon Frazer Lehman thought had quite enough with his own business to manage & is not likely to assist much in the matter of A. H. Piers. However, I understand that there is no possibility of Mr. Fisher working with Monford & that if Mr. Fisher stays on Monford will go. I believe Monford is a good man at his job & we had better do nothing at present which would have the effect of getting rid of him. So we may & think accept Mr. Fisher's resignation & record the papers. We are running some risk.

 I believe is rather a difficult man to get on with; but Formby & Co ought to be able to keep him in order. What is wanted is someone, ~~exactly~~ accustomed to accounts, daybooks, ledgers, registers, stock books & so on, & who w^d be willing to spend a good lot of time, probably 2 or 3 times a week in looking after the books. Mr. Schmidt, D.C. of Registration, ought to be able to do this & w^d probably be much more use than the head of one of the big business firms.

Dec 7. 3. 10

The papers may be recorded.
 Mr. Gordon Fraser has been asked to serve & has consented so to perform action. He is called for.
 It is a pity that Fisher cannot continue to serve.
