Reference.

Read- the following endorsement of R. Morris Esquire, I.C.S., Collector of Anantapur, dated 18th February 1910, D.Dis. No. 563 of 1910.

Forwarded for favourable consideration.

With effect from 1911, the Madr Matriculation Examination of the

G.O. 647 Rd
15.12.09 Madras University will cease to be a qualification for entering Government Service, and a school leaving certificate will be substituted, the holders of which apparently may appear

for

for all the Special Tests. It seems improbable that the standard of the leaving certificate will be so high as that of the F.A. Examination, and the undersigned would suggest that the disabilities now imposed upon those who have passed no higher examination than the Matriculation might concurrently be removed.

If general exemptions cannot be granted, he would suggest that the permission sought for may be granted to the applicant, who is a good clerk and fully qualified men are difficult to procure for high appointments in this District.

CP No 246

L. A. Clerk

To

His Most Excellency the Governor in Council, Madras.

Through the Collector of Anantapur
and

The Board of Revenue, Land Revenue, Madras.

The humble memorial of Mallanchakravarti Narasimhachari, acting 3rd Correspondence clerk, Collector's office, Anantapur

Most respectfully sheweth:-

1. That the memorialist most humbly begs to submit that he is the permanent 3rd Accountant in the Collector's office, anantapur on Rs. 50/- and acting 3rd clerk in the same office on Rs. 60/- He has put in a service of over 13 years having begun his official career in October 1891 after passing the Matriculation Examination held in December 1888. The Special Test Examination Rules allowing matriculates to apply for criminal Judicial Test remained in force only 2 years after the memorialist entered service and in that short time, your Excellency's humble memorialist had to attend to the more necessary Tests of Revenue and Accounts to enable him to qualify himself for a Revenue Inspectorship. Then came the new rules closing the gates of the criminal Test to the matriculates. When in the lower grades of service, it was of little concern

4/4/10 10/25/10 5
to him whether he had passed this Test or not, and this disqualification did not make him feel keenly for it then.

2. That the memorialist has had ample experience of all the branches of work of a Revenue office having served in various capacities as shown in the margin.

Taluk clerk 4 years
Taluk Head clerk 3 1/2 years
Revenue Inspector 3 1/2 years clerk, Collector's office 7 years.

He is now doing the work formerly done by Vernacular Head clerks, but there is little chance of promotion for him on the ground that he is not qualified for promotions to Taluk Sharistadars and other appointments for which criminal Test is required. He has passed the undermentioned Special Tests and the want of this Test is therefore a sad disqualification for him:-

1.	Translation Lower Telugu	1891
2.	Precis Test	1892
3.	Revenue Lower	1893
4.	Account Test (Lower)	1895

3. To apply for this test a candidate must have, according to the rules now in force, passed the F.A. Examination. It is now too late for the humble memorialist to think of joining a college after having put in a long service and study ^{for} the University Examination making it only a means to an end.

4. That the memorialist therefore most humbly prays that he may be permitted to apply for the criminal Test Higher grade. In Districts which are educationally backward such concessions are granted on behalf of subordinates of fair amount of approved service.

5. That the memorialist prays that in the above circumstances this concession be extended to him; for which act of kindness and generosity the humble memorialist shall ever remain grateful.

Ramaswami Raker Memorialist.

C. No. 525 From the Board of Revenue Lk. No. 512pt/pt dated 12 March 1900.

SUBJECT.

Submitting the application of N. Narasimha Chavlu, acting 3rd clerk, Collector's Office, Anantapur, applying for permission to appear for the Criminal Judicial Test, Higher Grade.

p. 314 of the C. 7.

The Collector of Anantapur (Mr. R. Morris) forwards an application from N. Narasimha Chavlu, acting 3rd clerk of his office, in which the latter requests that he may be permitted to appear for the Criminal Judicial Test, Higher Grade.

p. 117 of the C. 7.

2. In forwarding the application, the Collector observes that "as the Matriculation exam^t of the Madras University will cease to be a qualification for entering Govt^t Service and a School leaving certificate will be substituted, with effect from April 1911, the holders of which ~~may~~ apparently may appear for all the Special Tests, the disabilities, imposed upon those who have passed no higher exam^t than the present Matriculation might consequently be removed."

3. G.O. No. 649 Etdy 15-12-09 lays down that on and after 1-4-1911 holders of completed Secondary School leaving certificates shall alone be eligible for appointment to any post in the Superior Service which, under existing

pp. 6 & 10 of the

existing rules is open to candidates who have passed the Upper Secondary or the Matriculation exams. The question whether the holders of School leaving certificates should be allowed to appear for special tests was discussed in the notes connected with G.O. no 649 E.S. 15-12-09, and it was decided that nothing need be said about it for the present. The school leaving certificate only replaced the matriculation exams, and in the absence of any specific orders permitting the holders of such certificates to appear for all the Special Tests, it may be taken that they are eligible to appear only for those special tests for which ~~the~~ matriculated are ~~to~~ now eligible to appear. The collector is mistaken in supposing that holders of secondary school leaving certificates may appear for all the Special tests. In ~~the~~ submitting the case to ~~the~~ Govt, The Board of Revenue states that it is unable to support the collector's recommendation.

It seems to be sufficient for the present present to deal with the case of the individual whose exemption has been recommended by the Collector. The General question raised by the Collector need not be considered.
