Sir,

I have the honour to transmit herewith the application addressed to you by R. Ramoo Iyengar, Head Clerk of the Temporary

The Temporary Subordinate Judge who has forwarded the application to me, reports that as the applicant is a Matriculate, he is debarred from appearing for the above test and that as he has passed all other tests and has been doing his work very efficiently and has put in an approved service of about 20 years, he deserves to be exempted from passing the Criminal Judicial Test, or at least to be permitted to appear for that test to enable him to complete all the tests necessary for holding the post of Sheristadar of a Subordinate or District Court, for which he finds him to be competent.
