The Hon'ble Rao Bahadur RAMABHADRA NAYUDU:—

V. Will the Government be pleased to sympathise with and render financial aid to the Rajkumar College proposed to be started by the Madras Landholders' Association?

[Meeting of the 5th April 1910.]

The following draft answer is submitted for approval:-

The proposal to establish a Rajkumar College in Madras ^{has been} urged upon the Government by the Maharaja of Bobbili for some time past. — In March 1909 the Government appointed a committee to investigate and report on the subject. The committee submitted a preliminary report and a draft scheme which has been generally accepted by Government. The scheme is estimated to cost $8\frac{1}{2}$ lakhs of rupees, of which $2\frac{1}{2}$ lakhs are required for the construction of a building for the College. Towards the amount so required the Maharaja of Bobbili has promised to contribute one lakh of rupees and the Government would be prepared to make a contribution of a similar amount, if the remaining sum of about $6\frac{1}{2}$ lakhs, which is required for the accomplishment of the scheme is contributed by the landowners and zamindars of the Presidency. The Government would also contribute Rs. 15,000 per annum for the first five years towards the cost of maintenance of the college.

For M.S.

The draft order on the subject of the establishment of the Rajkumar College has been passed by the Government but is held back pending the receipt of a a Communication from the Maharaja of Bobbili indicating the name of Zamindar who should issue the order to other Zamindars for an Endowment fund for the College. The papers are in the linked file. If the order is shortly and is placed on the Editor's Table, the Hon. L.C. M's question may be answered by simply referring him to the Govt.
