The views of this Government on the subject of free elementary education are contained in Letter No. 138, Educational, dated 24th February 1903. The Government of India have not yet passed any final orders on the question. It is for consideration whether the Hon'ble Legislative Council Member's question will come within the purview of Rule 5 of the Statutory Rules for asking Questions. Otherwise there seems to be no objection to its admissibility. The Government of India letter to which letter No. 138, Educational, dated 24th February 1903 is a reply was placed on Editor's Table with India's permission - Vide G.O. No. 180 Ed., dated 26th March 1907 and the notes therewith.

Please look up the debate in the Imperial Council. I think it was stated there that the papers, including of course the views of local Govts, would be published.

Please see the editorial note on p. 4 of the Hindu of the 19th March 1910, where it is stated that Sir Harvey Adamsan announced that the replies of local bodies & other papers connected with free elementary Education would be published. Such a statement does not however appear in the text of Sir Harvey's speech given on p. 5 of the same paper & in the other dailies.

See the report of Sir Harvey Adamsan's speech in the 'Madras Mail'. He is reported to have said that the Govt. of India propose to publish the correspondence. Until then it would not be proper for the Govt. to make public the letters to the Govt. of India.

The answer to the question may be.

~~See the memorandum.~~

From the report of the debate in the Imperial Leg^o Council it is understood that the Govt. of India intend to publish the correspondence on the subject of the Primary Education. Meanwhile the Govt. are not at liberty to publish their letters to the Govt. of India.
