2. The Registrar of the University of Madras now draws the attention of Govt to the fact that the University will admit candidates to the B.E. Degree examⁿ, only on their production of the Certificate of attendance at an affiliated College.

It will be observed, however, that although the G.O. refers only to the educational qualifications of the candidates, it is understood that they should undergo the prescribed course of training in an affiliated College of Engineering and in the letter to the Govt of Ceylon, No. 121 of 12-3-10, it was clearly stated that candidates from Ceylon would be admitted to the B.E. Degree examⁿ only on condition that they produced the usual attendance certificates from an affiliated College. It is submitted that the letter from the Registrar may be recorded.

Calendar for 1910

regarding attendance certificates (Regn. 326) would be enforced, and in the letter to the Ceylon Govt.

VII

(Letter No. 121 G.O. of 12.3.10) specific reference was made to the requirement of this Regn. in regard to attendance certificate.
