The Under Secretary to Government,
Educational Department.

Sir,

With reference to your memorandum No. 437-B of the 21st instant, I have the honor to request you to be so good as to direct the supply to the Madras University Library of a copy of the 1908 Edition of Alcock's 'Tamil', instead of the 1904
Edition which was first applied for.

I have the honor,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Respectfully,

C. No. 487 From the Registrar, Madras University No. 942, dated 10-3-1900.

SUBJECT. Supply of certain publications to the University library.

The Registrar, Madras University, requests that the University library may be supplied gratis with a copy of "A Collection of Treaties, Engagements and Sanads relating to India and neighbouring Countries" compiled by C. W. Aitchison, 3rd Edition. The necessity for the request is explained by saying that the Connemara Library contains an old edition of this Collection in 8 volumes and that the edition now asked for is that of 1892 in eleven volumes.

I 2. Under para. 9 of G.O. 59 Finl (Books Branch) of 25th June 1906 "general questions relating to books will be dealt with in the Secretariat department most intimately connected with the subject matter of such books." The Political department seems to be most intimately connected with the subject matter of the book now under reference. It is submitted that the Registrar's request may be remitted to the Political department for consideration.

I suppose the Registrar does not know that the 1892 edition also has now been superseded. I don't know that Pol^t Dept^t is concerned with the distribution of the new edition, but it may be asked.

Ten & complete sets of ^{the 13 volumes of} the new edition (1906) of Aitchison's treaties and 25 copies of volume x were received by the Librarian last December and they were distributed according to the distribution list on page 8 of G.O. 610 Political dated 18-10-06. There are no extra copies available in the library, and if the request of the Registrar, Madras University, should be complied with, the Government of India should be asked for another complete set. The edition required by the Registrar, Madras University is the III Edition. Probably he does not know that the 1892 edition has been superseded by that of 1906.

If Educational decides to supply the books to the Registrar of the Madras University, Political need not object. If the Registrar wants the 1892 edition a set may be supplied to him from the Secretariat Library as it is available here. If however, he wants the 1906 edition Educational Department may address the Govt of India for a set. ~~Transmitting~~

The "general questions" referred to in the latter part of para 9 of G.O. no 59 Financial (Books Branch) dated the 25th June 1906, do not seem to include the question of supply to any particular person or body but questions as to whether any book should be acquired for Govt and so on.

This is I think a matter for Educational to deal with.

The book applied for by the Registrar of the Madras University is for the University Library. This library is located in the Connemara Public library and the books belonging to it are as accessible to the general public as those in the Connemara Public Library. A complete set of Aitchison's Treaties may, with advantage, be supplied to the University Library as the Connemara Public Library does not seem to have been supplied with it - Cf. the distribution list on page 8 of G.O. 610, Political, dt 18-10-06.

2. Before, however, an application is made to the Govt of India for a set of the book, the Registrar of the University may be requested to state whether he desires to have the edition of 1892 or the new edition of 1906.

Sir,

I am directed to address the Govt. of India on the subject of the free supply to the Madras University Library of a complete set of the new edition of Aitchison's "Collection of Treaties, Engagements and Sanads".

2. The University Library is at present located in the Connemara Public Library, Madras, and the books belonging to the former are as accessible to the General public as those in the latter. As the Connemara Public Library does not contain a copy of Aitchison's book H.E. the Governor in Council considers that the University Library may, with advantage, be supplied with a copy of the same.

3. I am accordingly directed to request that, if there be no objection, arrangements may be made for the free supply to the Madras University Library of a complete set of the new edition of Aitchison's "Collection of Treaties, Engagements & Sanads".
