From (Name) The Hon'ble Mr. A.G. Bourne, D.Sc., F.R.S., C.I.E.,

(Designation) Director of Public Instruction,

Madras.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

(Through the Educational Department the Accountant - General)
Sir,

I have the honour to request you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government for the employment of an Assistant Lecturer in History on Rs. 100 per mensem in the Government Arts College, Rajahmundry, from 1st July 1910 to 31st March 1911.

2. There is at present only one lecturer to teach this subject (vide G.Os. No. 793 Educational., dated 27th November 1908 and No. 330 Educational., dated 5th June 1909) and the necessity for the employment of an additional lecturer is due to the formation of the Second Intermediate Class in the College this year.
The Principal states that according to the time-table relating to Group III of the first and second year Intermediate classes this year, ten hours are assigned for History lectures and seven for History library, and that while the single History lecturer has to deliver

TN

2 2 2 4
Deliver all the lectures it has not been possible to make any satisfactory arrangement for expert supervision of the History library hours. He further says that the circumstance that History lectures can never be going on simultaneously while there are two separate History groups in each class, makes it impossible for the College to give students of Group IV the option of taking "Ancient or Modern History" held out by the University.

The History work of the proposed Assistant lecturer will not be sufficient work for such an officer until the B. A. History classes are formed and meanwhile it is proposed to employ him in the English division where the work of correcting composition at present shared between the assistants is reported to be very heavy and also to give him an hour weekly with each class for books of nondetailed study to which the new Curriculum gives some prominence.

I may here mention that at the Kumbakonam College where almost the same amount of work has to be done there are four lecturers in English and two in History including the temporary Assistant Lecturer recently sanctioned against three in English and one in History at this College, while it is not therefore possible to detail any one of the present lecturers or their assistants for assisting the lecturer in History. In these circumstances I consider the employment of an assistant lecturer in History to be necessary, the post which may be outside the cadre of the Subordinate Collegiate Service being temporary until the 31st March 1911 after which period the question of its permanent retention may be considered.

3. The necessary proposition statement is herewith submitted and a reappropriation statement showing how the extra charge during the next year can be met will be submitted on receipt of the final issue of the Civil Budget Estimates.

The Principal being new to the College at the time of submission of the Budget Estimates for 1910-1911 had not foreseen

* This will be only in July 1911, while the temporary add. lecturer will cease to work the 31st March 1911. Will not clear what the S.D.O. means exactly. X2 foreseen the necessity for this appointment and ^{not} applied for permission in time to provide for the charge in those estimates.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

G. Krishnamoorti

NOTE.—If the proposal is a reorganization of establishment the Head of the Department should certify that claims to pension that may arise in consequence have been considered with reference to the provisions of art. 429 C.S.R. and should specify any case in which the maximum pension ordinarily admissible will be subject to reduction under that article—M. T. M. para. 67.

If Local Government is competent to sanction, its order will be written across these four columns.

SUBJECT

Employment of a temporary Assistant Lecturer in the Rajahmundry College.

Para 1 of D.P.I.'s letter on page 1 P.U.C.

The D.P.I. requests the sanction of Govt to the employment of an assistant lecturer on Rs 100 per mensem in the Rajahmundry College for a period of nine months from 1st July 1910 to 31st March 1911.

2. This temporary appointment can be sanctioned by this Dept but as no provision has been made in the current year's budget to meet the charge, a reference to the Financial Dept. is necessary - vide Finl memo. no. 3132-2 dated 27th July 1908.

3. The draft below is for approval. If approved, it may be sent to the Financial Dept for acceptance.

T.H.
2.5.10.

The reasons for the employment of the proposed additional instructor from 1st July 1910 to 31st March 1911 are given in para. 2 of the D.P.I.'s letter. They are not very convincing. The appointment is however only temporary and may be sanctioned. The D.P.I. promises to send the usual v. approp. statement.
