To

The Secretary to the Government,

Educational & Legislative Departments, 3

Madras.

Sir,

With Ref. on your G.O., No. 172 R., dated 4th May 1910, I beg leave to submit once more this humble petition of mine for your kind reconsideration and favourable disposal thereof.

On account of my pecuniary difficulties, I was unable to prosecute my studies. As candidates were not allowed to appear privately for the Matriculation, I made up my mind to appear for the Cambridge Senior Local Examination which was recognised by the Government and by the University as well. To quote the words of the Registrar, "This University does recognise the Cambridge Senior Local Examination as equivalent to the Matriculation so far as the Arts examinations are concerned and to the First Examination in Arts so far as the Medical examinations are concerned". Seeing this reply from the Registrar and also the Government Notification, I appeared for the Cambridge Senior Local Examination in the following subjects and passed in all of them: i) Arithmetic, (ii) Old and New Testaments, (iii) English Language & Literature including Composition, (iv) History, (v) Geography, VI) Physiology & Hygiene. Of the 65 candidates that appeared for the examination only I got through. I soon learnt that the University does not recognise this examination. But I had the satisfaction to see the Government recognising it. As late a Government Notification as the 8th February 1910, says, "a pass in any of the following examinations shall be accepted as sufficient qualification for entering the Public Service: 1) The late Higher Examination for women, (2) The Oxford or the Cambridge Senior Local Examinations, (3) The Matriculation of the London University, etc. etc." Even the London University recognises the Cambridge Senior Local Examination.

By ~~seeing~~ the Notification of the 8th March 1910, in the Fort St. George Gazette all my future prospects are blasted. I, therefore, humbly beg that I may be given a special sanction for entering the Public Service

Service and that I may be allowed all the privileges of candidates have passed the First Examination in Arts of the Madras University the standard of the Cambridge Senior Local Examination is considerably higher than that of the Matriculation, especially in English.

Enclosed is a true copy of my testimonial as to my character for your kind perusal.

In conclusion, I beg that my petition be reconsidered and favourable orders passed thereon, for which act of kindness I shall only be thankful but shall ever pray.

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Yours most obediently,

M.K. Padiyar.

Cochin.

I have known Madhava K. Padiyar for sometime. He was my pupil in the Matriculation Class, T. D. High School, Cochin. I found him always regular and punctual in attendance. He was a very well behaved student. He possesses a knowledge of English which, I should think, is creditable for one of his age and standard. He is a young man of very pleasant manners and his conduct has been very satisfactory. His character and ability augur well for his success in life. He has with my best wishes and kindest regards.

C.No.955, from M.K.Padiyar, dated 7th May 1910.

Subject.

Requesting that he may be declared eligible for appointment in the public service.

M. K. Padiyar, T.D. High school, Cochin, states that he has passed the Cambridge Senior Local Examination held in December 1909 and requests that on that ground he may be given a special sanction for entering the public service and that he may be allowed all the privileges of candidates who have passed the First Examination in Arts of the Madras University.

2. According to note to Article 1 of the Public Service Notification in force prior to February 1910 persons who had passed the Oxford or Cambridge Senior Local Examinations were eligible for appointment in the superior service of Government in the same way as candidates who had passed the Madras Upper Secondary examination or the Matriculation Examination of the Madras University were eligible. But on recognition of the Secondary School Leaving certificate as the minimum qualification required for admission to the public service, the Government ordered that a pass in the Oxford or Cambridge Senior Local examinations ^{should} be accepted as sufficient qualification for entering the public service only "in the case of students who pass ~~the~~ those examinations outside the limits of India and Ceylon".- Vide G.O.No.60 Educational, dated 2nd February 1910 and G.O.No.82 Educational, dated 19th

February

February 1910. The object of the above restriction was to prevent pupils of unrecognised schools, who could not obtain a Secondary School leaving certificate, from qualifying themselves for public service by passing the Oxford or Cambridge Senior Local Examinations. The public service notification as amended with reference to the above G.O., however, prevents all candidates who have passed ~~the~~ the Oxford or Cambridge Local Examination from entering the public service, although candidates who had passed that examination previous to the issue of that G.O. were eligible, under the rules ^{then} in force, ~~prior to February 1910~~ for admission to ^{the public service} ~~the public service~~. The question now for consideration is whether the ruling issued in G.O. No. 82 Educational, dated 19th February 1910, should be considered to affect only persons who pass the Cambridge or Oxford Senior Local Examinations ^{subsequent} to 1st February 1910 or whether it should be held to apply to persons who had passed the examinations held prior to 1910 in any centre in India or Ceylon. If it is decided that such persons are eligible for public service, then, the petitioner having passed the Cambridge Senior Local examination held in December 1909 is also eligible for the public service without any special exemption.

4. Under subpara. (3) to para. 1 of the public Service notification persons who have passed the Matriculation Examination prior to 1910 are declared eligible for appointments in the public service. It seems to be only fair that persons who passed the Cambridge or Oxford Senior Local Examinations prior to 1910, should likewise be granted a similar concession.

Concession. The Scheme of Secondary School leaving certificates, which was sanctioned in G.O. No. 427 Est. dated 21st July 1909, came into force only on 1st January 1910, and it will not be inconsistent with the spirit of the ruling in G.O. No. 82 Est. of 19th February 1910, if the restriction therein laid down is applied only to persons who pass the Cambridge or Oxford examinations ~~only~~ subsequent to 1910.
