The humble Petition of D. Jagannayukulu 1st Clerk on Rs 40/- per mensem (late Superintendent of Copyists) District Court, Vizagapatam, most respect fully sheweth : -

With reference to the Government's Endorsement No. 2085 - 1 dated the 29th September 08 on my Educational
petition dated 15--9--08 praying for permission to - appear for some Special Tests (Civil Judicial Test & Translation Test) during the period specified therein, the Petitioner respectfully begs to submit that, owing to the circumstances explained in my petition above referred to, he was not able to attend the Civil Judicial Test Examination in the year 1908 (one of the two years during which the Government was gracious enough to permit him) and appeared only for the Translation Test Examination in that year and came out successful.
(1908)

Under the circumstances, the Petitioner - most humbly prays that the Government will be pleased - to order that the year 1910 may be substituted for - 1908 in the G.O. communicated with High Court's Order Dis No. 734 dated 20th July 1908 enabling him to appear only for the Civil Judicial Test ~~Exch~~ in that year.

The humble petition presented by D. Jagannayakulu, Superintendent of Copyists, District Court, Vizagapatam, most humbly sheweth:-

For 50822dy 8-7-08

As per accompanying order no. 734 dated 20.7.08 (copy

The original order has been attached to my application for Special Test Examinations and submitted to the Commissioner for Government Examinations.

herewith enclosed), the benign Government have been pleased to permit the petitioner to appear for the Civil Judicial Test and Translation Lower Grade (Telugu) during the years 1908 & 1909 only.

The above-mentioned order was received by the petitioner on 23.7.08.
He then at once applied for the Examinations. But suddenly afterwards, owing to the petitioner's misfortune, his wife was attacked with severe illness and asked to attend over her and as there is no other body in his family to attend to it, his studies had to be disturbed. According to the medical certificate (appended herewith) the illness seems to continue for a month or two more.

(2.) Under the circumstances, the Petitioner most humbly and respectfully begs the generous Government will be pleased to take pity in his poor case and to kindly issue a fresh order allowing him to appear for the abovementioned Examinations during the years 1909 & 1910 instead of 1908 & 1909, as he is ready to forego the Examination fee (Rs. 12/-) and to stop appearing

1385 60

There is no help for it but to forego

appearing for the Enaminations this year.

(3) For which act of trouble, the petitioner begs to be pardoned and for the Kindness and Charity, he ever feels grateful

C. No. 944. From the Registrar, High Court. No. 1385/10, dated 6.5.1900.

SUBJECT. Forwarding an application from D. Jagannayakulu Nayudu, Clerk, St. Court, Vizagapatam, praying for permission to appear for the Civil Judicial test in October 1910.

③ Now 1st Clerk, St. Court, Vizagapatam pay Rs 40 per m. vide page 4 of C.F.

Please see letter No. 315 Edd of 24th May 1904 and the notes connected with it. In that letter the Govt. stated they were not prepared to permit D. Jagannayakulu, 4th Clerk of the St. Court of Vizagapatam, to appear for the Civil Judicial test and for the Translation test, Lower Grade.

This decision was based on the fact, that Jagannayakulu had not taken advantage of the concession granted by G.O.

X K. 584 Edd of 21st September 1896 which declared that persons who on the 1st January 1897 held appointments carrying a salary of Rs 15 per m. or upwards in the "superior service" of Govt. and who on that date had passed either the General Test examination or the middle school examination in the 1st class were eligible to appear for the special test examinations during the next succeeding five years.

④ Except the Rev. test, Higher Grade & the Criminal Judicial test.

M.

2. Subsequently in G.O. 508 Edd of 8-7-08 the Govt. reconsidered their previous order and permitted Jagannayakulu to appear for the Civil Judicial test and the Translation test, Lower Grade, on the ground that he belonged to a backward class and restricted the permission to the years 1908 and 1909 only - vide the Secretary's (Mr. Taylor's) note on page 8 of G.O. 508 Edd of 8-7-08 and the H.M.'s note following it.

M.

3. The High Court now forwards an application from Jagannayakulu

Pages 4 & 5 of C.F.

K. Jagannayakulu in which he requests that the year 1910 may be substituted for 1908 in G.O. 508 Exd. 8-7-08. In other words his request is that he may be permitted to appear for the Civil Judicial test in October 1910 also. Jagannayakulu states that he remitted money for the examination of 1908 but owing to the severe illness of his wife he was not able to appear for the examination in Civil Judicial test in that year but adds that he appeared for and passed the Translation test, Lower Grade. It is not, however, stated whether he made any attempt to appear for the examination held in October 1909. He had altogether seven chances since 1897 all of which he has lost. The High Court does not make any special recommendation.

4. It is for consideration whether Jagannayakulu may be permitted to appear for the Civil Judicial test in October 1910 also.

PR
17-5-10

M. The petitioner, D. Jagannayakulu, is a first class middle school man (p. 3 of G.O. no. 508 Exd. dated 8th July 1908) and is now 1st Clerk on Rs 40 in the D. Court of Vizapattam. He has passed the Translation Test Lower Grade, and if he passes the Civil Judicial Test, he will be qualified for the post of Saenshtadar in the Subordinate Judges' Court.

Court and for the post of Head Clerk in Subordinate Judges' and St. Munsefs' Courts - vide items 10 + 11 under G. Judicial Department on pages of the Public Service notification. The petitioner's ^{general} Educational Qualifications seem however to be too low to qualify him for these posts, and as he has already had several chances of passing the examination and has not profited by them, there appears to be no justification for granting him the further concession asked for. The High Court does not make any recommendation in favour of the petitioner.
