EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 314, EDUCATIONAL,
DATED 1st JUNE 1910.

[SUBJECT.—Permanent retention of the temporary additional teacher in the Government girls' school, Māvavaram.]

From the Director of Public Instruction, dated 22nd April 1910, No. 2366.

In G.O., No. 123, dated 5th March 1909, the employment of a temporary additional teacher on Rs. 10 per mensem for the Government girls' school, Māvavaram, was sanctioned for one year from 1st March 1909. The sanction was, however, given effect to only from 30th June 1909.

2. The Director of Public Instruction states that since the appointment of the temporary teacher, two higher standards, viz., the 6th and the 7th standards, have been added to the school and that the total strength has risen from 130 to 160 and he requests that the temporary teacher may be made permanent.

3. The school contains seven standards with 160 pupils and there are only five teachers excluding the temporary teacher. An additional teacher seems therefore to be necessary. The proposal of the Director of Public Instruction to retain permanently the temporary teacher referred to above may be approved.

4. The draft placed below is for approval. If approved, it may be sent to the Financial Department for acceptance.

GOVERNMENT PRESS, MADRAS.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SECRETARIAT.

(a) If a paper is marked to be printed urgently, the Superintendent of the section concerned should sign the Press slip. The Superintendent should exercise a careful discretion in the matter.

(b) Each letter, memorandum, or order, or set of orders, in the file of correspondence should be headed in succession with the Roman numeral I, II, III, etc., the number being written in red ink or blue chalk above the item. The particular papers to be printed in the special issue-copies should be indicated by the Roman numeral (I, II, etc.) by which that item has been headed in the correspondence file. All matter, including marginal remarks or references, to be printed should be written in ink and matter which should not be printed should be encircled. Initials and signatures that are not quite legible should be re-written distinctly.

(b) For rules regarding printing of notes, see the rules in G.O., No. 1220, Public, dated 30th November 1900.

(c) The number of copies and the details of distribution should be filled in by the Superintendent or Referencer concerned.

(d) In the absence of special instructions to the Press to keep matter standing for a specified period, ordinary papers of 8 pages and under will be kept standing for one week, and larger papers for two weeks only. The type of notes and of all confidential papers is distributed immediately after striking.

(e) This slip, properly and completely filled in, should accompany every paper sent to Press; it will be returned by the Press when proofs are furnished; it should be sent to the Press when a call is made for revised proofs or when a corrected proof is sent for striking. When finally returned by Press it should be filed with the original order or letter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PRESS.

(a) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent of the Press, a paper has been marked urgent unnecessarily, he should send the Press slip to the Deputy Registrar with a remark to that effect.

(b) Unless a note to the contrary is made against the matter, pencil entries should not be printed. The Superintendent of the Press may bring to the notice of the Deputy Registrar any instance of incomplete or careless editing.

(c) Signature copies of letters to the Secretary of State or to the Government of India should be printed on hand-made paper.

(d) This slip should be returned by the Press to the Secretariat when proofs are furnished; it will be sent back to the Press when proofs are returned corrected and should be finally returned to the Secretariat when struck-off copies are supplied.

(e) The names of the Secretary and Members should be printed in full when they occur on the right hand side, but only the first time when they appear on the left side, the initials alone being printed later.
