From (Name) R. B. Wood, Esq., I.C.S.

(Designation) Ag. Collector of Malabar.

To the Secretary to the Government of Madras,
Educational Department
Sir,

I have the honour to request that Government will be pleased to exempt Subbayyar Ganapathi Ayyan (late Ag. Currency Cashier) from passing the Revenue Test,
Lower grade, under the following circumstances:--

2. Consequent on the enactment of the new Indian Paper Currency Act II of 1910 on the 18th February 1910, the Paper Currency Office, Calicut, was abolished with effect from the 19th idem on receipt of Head Commissioner's orders by wire. A portion of the establishment was retained to finish off the work which remained to be done

done and on its completion, the office was finally closed on the 13th May 1910.

3. The Currency Establishment consisted of 9 men as under:--

Serial No.	Name.	Designation.	Salary.	Remarks.
1.	V. Vamana Kammatty.	1st Teller & Cashier.	Rs. 75	On deputation as Ag. Huzur Treasurer
2.	Subbayyar Ganapathi Iyer.	2nd Teller.	50	Do. as Ag. 1st Teller & Cashier.
3.	C. G. Gwynne.	3rd Teller.	50	Do. Ag. 2nd Teller
4.	T. U Krishnan.	Head Clerk.	35
5.	P. M. Kuttikrishnan Nair.	2nd Clerk.	20	Do. as Ag. clerk on Rs. 25, Huzur.
6.	C. Rarichan.	Shroff.	15	Since retired.
7.	K. Ramankutti Nair.	Moochi.	10	On deputation as Ag. Clerk on Rs. 15 Huzur.
8.	Hussan Khan.	Peon.	8
9.	K. Kanaran Nair.	Peon.	8

Out of the 9 men, No. 6 (the Shroff) retired and the remaining men have been provided with substantive appointments. The two Tellers, Subbayyar Ganapathi Ayyar and C. G. Gwynne, were provided with posts on Rs. 50 and Rs. 40 respectively in my office. At the time of the abolition of the Currency office, Ganapathi Ayyar was a permanent Teller on Rs. 50 and Gwynne was a permanent Teller on Rs. 50. Seeing that the abolition of the Currency office not only deprived these men of their appointments but also their chances of promotion there through no fault of their own, I applied to the Board of Revenue (Land Revenue) for the permanent exemption of Ganapathi Ayyan from passing the Revenue Test, Lower grade, and the one year's course as Revenue Inspector for posts up to Rs.75 and for the exemption of Gwynne from the one year's course as Revenue Inspector for posts up to Rs.40, his new appointment. In its Proceedings No. 960 Misc., dated 11th March 1910, the Board sanctioned my proposal to exempt them from the one year's course as Revenue Inspector and asked me to address Government direct for their permanent exemption from the Revenue Test, Lower grade.

4. Canapathi Ayyan has put in a total service of nearly 23 years. He has passed the following examinations:--

1. Matriculation.
2. Hand-writing Test.
3. Translation Test (lower).
4. Criminal Test. (Do.).
5. Account Test. (Do.).
6. Revenue Inspectors' Survey Test.

He has held the following special appointments:--

1. Fscheat clerk and Inspector on Rs.20 and Rs.35 respectively for 5 years, 8 months.

2. Special Inspector for the Registration of jernam titles on Rs. 50 for 2 years, 2 months.

For a period of about 10 years, he was an accountant in the Account and Audit Branches of my office. The only bar to his promotion in the regular line now is that he has not passed the Revenue Test, and in view of his long service I consider that he has a good case for exemption. Gwynne, who is a young man, will be required to pass the test.

5. A copy of my letter to the Board and its Proceedings thereon, are enclosed.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant.

Malabar Collector's Office,
Calicut, 1st March 1910.

To

The Secretary to the Commissioners of Land Revenue, M a d r a s.

Sir,

In continuation of my letter R.O.C. No. 401/P.10 dated 11th instant, I have the honour to report that the Agent of the Bank of Madras, Calicut, informs me that his head office did not sanction the proposal to take over S. Ganapathi Iyer as the 1st Teller and Ag. Currency Cashier. He will therefore be retained in my office where he has been appointed to a permanent post.

2. Ganapathi Iyer and C. G. Gwynne had permanent posts in the Currency office on Rs.50 each. I have sent up proposals to the Currency Commissioner to keep on a part of the Currency establishment for another 3 months, in order to finish of a lot of work which has to be done now that the Currency Department in Calicut is closed: and I have appointed them to be Huzur 4th clerk on Rs.50 and Abkari Head Clerk on Rs.40 from the date of the final ending of their present appointments. But they have neither of them passed the Revenue Test, or served the prescribed Revenue Inspectors' course: and therefore are not eligible under ordinary circumstances for confirmation in posts in Collector's or Divisional Offices carrying a salary of more than Rs.35 per mensem. Besides the Matriculation examination and Hand-writing test, the former has passed Criminal, Account and Translation tests in the lower grade and the latter the Account Test, Lower grade. They have now lost their posts in the Currency office through no fault of their own, as well as their chances of promotion there, and deserve some concession. I therefore beg to recommend that S. Ganapathi Iyer, who has over 22 years' service, may be permanently

presently exempted from the Revenue Test and the Revenue Collector's examination, for posts up to Rs.75: and that Gwynne, who is a young man, may be exempted so far as enable him to hold posts up to Rs.40, (the pay of his new appointment). For further promotion he can easily pass the described courses.

I have etc.

NOTES.

C. No. 1139. From the Collector of Malabar No. 525, dated 4-6-1900.

SUBJECT. Recommending the permanent exemption from the Revenue test, Lower Grade, of S. Ganapathi Aiyar, Clerk, Malabar Collector's Office.

The Collector of Malabar recommends the permanent exemption from the Revenue test, Lower Grade, of S. Ganapathi Aiyar, Clerk on Rs 50, in his office.

2. Ganapathi Aiyar was a teller* in the Paper Currency office, Calicut, which was abolished consequent on the enactment of the new Indian Paper Currency Act II of 1910.

on the 18th February 1910. He has been provided with a post on Rs 50 per. in the Collector's office. Ganapathi Aiyar has put in a total service of nearly 23 years and has passed all the tests required for promotion ^{up to the Grade of Tahsildar} in the Revenue Dept. except the Revenue test, Lower Grade. The Collector thinks that "in view of his long service he has a good case for exemption."

3. Submitted that the remarks of the Revenue Dept. may be obtained w/o. in the first instance.

p. 2 C. 7.

S. Ganapathi Miyar was a permanent Teller on Rs 50 and ag. Cashier on Rs 75 when the Calicut Currency Office was abolished. The Collector has provided him with an appointment on Rs 50 in his office and now requests that he may permanently be exempted from the Revenue test, lower grade.

p. 8 of Spl. Lett No. 114. M

2. Revenue test, lower grade, is prescribed for the following appointments :-

1. Kuzum Sanikadans
2. English & Vernacular Head Clerks in Collector's Office
3. Tehsildar
4. Dy. Tehsildar
5. Taluk Sanikadans & Taluk Head Accountants
6. Head Clerks of Divisional Office
7. Revenue Inspectors.

p. 3 C. 7.

Ganapathi Miyar has passed Criminal Apperent test, lower grade. Even if he is exempted from Revenue test, lower grade, he cannot be appointed a Tehsildar or Dy. Tehsildar unless the Collector is prepared to certify, under para (iii) G.O. No. 138, that "the interests of Administration will be distinctly promoted by his Appointment". But as shown above there are ~~posts~~ ministerial appointments for which Revenue test, lower grade, is prescribed and if Ganapathi is exempted from ~~any~~ this test he may hold any of ~~these~~ those appointments.

3. Ganapathi Miyar has put in a Pet.

Service of nearly 23 years and is 42 years old. It is submitted that it will be hard now to require him to pass the test and, as his case is rather exceptional, Revenue may support the Collector's recommendation to exempt him permanently from the Revenue test, lower grade.

4. In his letter to the Board the Collector applied for the permanent exemption of Janapathi Rajan from passing the Revenue test, lower grade, and the one year's course as Revenue Inspector "for posts up to Rs 75." From this it would appear that the Collector intends to promote him only ~~up to~~ ~~Rs 75~~ to posts up to Rs 75. Even if this is the case the exemption applied for is necessary to hold the posts of the Uruaculan Head Clerk, Taluk Rank. Kadars and Taluk Head Accountants and Head Clerk, of Divisional Offices.

The Secy. L. S. Rajan, District Collector's recommendation for the exemption of Janapathi Rajan from the Revenue test, lower grade. This would enable him to be appointed Taluk Head Accountant, which he is probably quite suitable.
