tain of promotion to me in due course, if he goes on as he has begun. It is doubtful whether, even supposing the concession is granted & he succeeds, he will ever become a Deputy Collector. I should

however like to see the concession granted, as he is a Mr. Maun, & a Caste practically unrepresented in the District, and his work as a sub-magistrate has been good.

The only possible object of granting the concession is to enable the man to qualify for a Dy. Collectorate. Mr. Buckley thinks he never will be a Dy. Col^l, & logically the recommendation has nothing but personal & sentimental ground to support it. But I suppose there is a chance of this man being made a Dy. Col^l if he qualifies; & it certainly is an advantage to have as many cooks as possible represented in the Dy. Collectorate. With some hesitation therefore I support the proposal.
