N.K.S.

To

His Excellency the Right Honourable

Sir Arthur Lawley, G.C.I.E., K.C.M.G.,

Governor in Council, Fort St. George.

The humble petition of Batulunnisa Begam Saheba, daughter of the late Buksheermulk Bahadur, residing at No. 56, Office Venkatachalam Mudali Street, Triplicane, Madras.

Submitted through the Inspector-General of Police
Madras.

May it please Your Excellency,

Your Excellency's humble petitioner is the daughter of the late Salar Jang Buksheermulk Bahadur, Commander-in-Chief of the forces of the last ruling Nawab of the Carnatic and the grand daughter of Dabeermulk Bahadur, Durbar Secretary to the same Nawab. All of her relatives held high posts under the last Nawab and enjoyed large pensions after his death. Your Excellency's petitioner also was allowed a pension of Rs. 30. But Government were pleased to reduce it to Rs. 15 in G.O. No. 384, Political, dated 4th September 1861, because she had then rich relatives to help her. When one after the other all her relatives and her husband died she was left with the scanty pension of Rs. 15 for her livelihood. Your Excellency's petitioner therefore lived with her only son Ahmed Husain Sahib Mohajir, a clerk in the Revenue Board's Office. As his family increased without ^{any} addition to his small pay and especially because he had many daughters for whom he had to provide, your Excellency's petitioner undertook the education of his three male children. When the standard of their education became high, and especially when the eldest of the three wanted to continue for the Arts course, your Excellency's humble petitioner was driven to the sad necessity of commuting her stipend of Rs.15. Her labours were rewarded with the success of the eldest grandson Muhammad Zindah Mohajir, who took his B.A. Degree with credit. But fate seemed to be against the other two for they encountered repeated failures in the Matriculation examination. One of them felt his disappointment so much that his brain was affected and the Doctors advised Your Excellency's petitioner to discontinue his studies which she did accordingly. The youngest was still reading for his examinations and Your Excellency's humble petitioner managed to meet his expenses with greatest difficulties, inconvenience and debt. But most unfortunately the last year's result too was in no way better. He has been pronounced to be a deserving and intelligent boy whose knowledge and capabilities are above the average, but still somehow or other has been failing in his attempts to secure a pass. In his selection examination he came out very high and his teachers were sure of his success. Now that the Matriculation examination is no more, Your Excellency's petitioner does not know what to do. Repeated failure has told not a little upon the boy himself and the pecuniary circumstances of his family make it an impossibility that he should read further. All the while Your Excellency's humble petitioner was expecting that her eldest grandchild, Muhammad Zindah, who is a graduate and has also passed the Revenue and Criminal tests, High Grade, would be favoured with a high post under the Government in consideration of his being the only young man of such a distinguished family who has read up so far, and thus be a support for his family. But to her regret petitions for the post of a Deputy Superintendent of Police, or a Deputy Collector, though highly recommended by the Pay Master, Carnatic Stipends, have been discarded by the Government. He was not fortunate enough to get even a Deputy Tahsildar's post or even a probationer's place, but is lingering on the scanty pay of Rs.30 in the Board's office in the clerical line, without any near chance of promotion. Your Excellency's humble petitioner firmly believing that she was not destined to see the off-spring of such a distinguished family as hers in as prosperous a condition as her relatives, had lost all her hopes. But in her despair a last ray of hope struck her and that was to appeal to ~~her~~ Your Excellency's mercy and generosity to lend a helping hand to the falling family. Your Excellency's humble petitioner most ardently prays that Your Excellency will be graciously pleased to exempt her youngest grandson Muhammad Naqui Mohajir of the Government Madrasai-A-Azam from the examination rules and permit him to enter the Police department as a Sub-Inspector. Your humble petitioner is well aware that this humble prayer is not a very great one. She knows more than one instances in which Government has exempted children of a less respectable family than hers from the examination rules and given them high places under Government. That her family alone should not receive any consideration from the benign Government is very hard especially when the recollection of the former days comes to Your Excellency's humble petitioner. Her petitions to Government for the review of G.O.No.18, Political, dated 17th January 1856, under which her pension of Rs.30 was withheld, have been rejected and now that she has commuted her paltry stipend of Rs.15 also, she has no further means of educating this child. Nor is his father in a condition, with the small pay he receives and the large family he has, that he may educate him any more.

21 5

5. b

6. 7 6

Under these heartrending and painful circumstances, Your Excellency's humble petitioner prays that Your Excellency will be graciously pleased to exempt her grandson Muhammad Naqui Mohajir from the examination rules and permit him to enter the Police department as a Sub-Inspector. Your Excellency's memorialist has submitted this humble petition through the Inspector-General of Police, Madras, in order that this Officer may be kind enough to remark upon his fitness for the department.

For which act of charity the petitioner shall as in duty bound ever pray.

Madras,
15th April 1910.

The information is quite insufficient — But there is no reason

we can find out all this by

why we must get to know him -

Ask to J.G. to see to him, to report whether, after examining him, he thinks he w^d make a good but inf. what is his age - height - whether he is physically strong - also we m^d have his school testimonials.

We can then see if he is a good subject for examination - we badly want more Muhammadans in the police.
