G.O., Mis. No. 445, Educational, dated 23rd June 1906.

ABSTRACT.—Recording the resolution of the Government of India fixing the 1st of July in each year as the latest date on which the report on Reformatory schools should be submitted to that Government by local Governments and administrations.

Letter—from H. G. STOKES, Esq., Deputy Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Education).

To—the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational Department.

Dated—Simla, the 6th July 1910.

No.—698.

With reference to the Home Department Resolution Nos. 392-400, dated the 7th June 1906, I am directed to state that the Government of India have decided that the annual reports on Reformatory schools need not, in future, be submitted to them. They think it desirable, however, that Principals of such schools should continue to send the reports to the Director of Public Instruction, and I am to suggest for the consideration of the Governor in Council that the latter officer might suitably be relieved of the duty of submitting them to the local Government and that it would be sufficient if he were to include the subject in his annual report on education.

Order—No. 424, Educational, dated 20th July 1910.

The Government of India having decided that the annual reports on Reformatory schools need not, in future, be submitted to them, the Governor in Council is pleased to direct that the Director of Public Instruction need not as hitherto submit to Government a separate annual report on the working of the Reformatory school, Chingleput, and that it will be sufficient if he includes the subject in his annual report on Public Instruction.

2. The Government, however, consider that the Superintendent of the school should continue to submit to the Director of Public Instruction the annual report on the working of the institution.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., Nos. 424-25, EDUCATIONAL,
DATED 20TH JULY 1910.

[SUBJECT.—Reports on Reformatory schools.]

From the Government of India, No. 698, dated 6th July 1910.

The Government of India have decided that the annual reports on Reformatory schools need not, in future, be submitted to them. They think it desirable, however, that Principals of such schools should continue to send the reports to the Director of Public Instruction, and they suggest that the Director of Public Instruction might suitably be relieved of the duty of submitting them to the local Government and that it would be sufficient if he were to include the subject in his annual report on education.

2. It is for consideration whether the Government would accept the suggestion of the Government of India and relieve the Director of Public Instruction of the duty of submitting to Government a separate annual report on the working of the Reformatory school, Chingleput. If the Government accept the suggestion of the Government of India, the draft may issue.

T.K.—14-7-10.

The Director of Public Instruction can at best devote a paragraph in his annual report on Public Instruction to chronicle the results of the working of the Reformatory school and this seems to be enough for the purposes of Government. The present reports, which are mostly of a routine nature, will still continue to be submitted to the Director of Public Instruction and may be obtained from him whenever necessary.

Draft may issue, I submit.

Looking at the remarks made on the annual reports for the last five years, the suggestion made by the Government of India that the Director of Public Instruction need not submit the report on Reformatory schools to Government in future may, I submit, be approved.

The draft is for approval.
