C.No.1359, from the D.P.I.

No.3753, dated 9th July 1910.

Subject.

Travelling allowance of Mr. Mark Hunter from Bombay to Godavari.

The Director of Public Instruction enquires whether the travelling allowance claimed by Mr. Mark Hunter for his railway journey from Bombay to Rajahmundry on his return from England to attend the magisterial inquiry into the defalcation of the accounts of the Rajahmundry College may be passed.

2. In G.O.No.R.22, Educational, dated 1st February 1909, Mr. Mark Hunter was granted furlough for fourteen months in continuation of the summer vacation of 1909 of the Rajahmundry college, that is, from 5th July 1909 and his leave in the ordinary course would expire on the 4th September 1910. But in consequence of the defalcation at the college, the Secretary of State was requested by telegram on the 11th April last to direct Mr. Mark Hunter to return to India before the 6th June 1910. The Secretary of State accordingly directed Mr. Mark Hunter to return to India by the 25th May 1910 and appears further to have provided him with a free passage under ~~Article~~ Article 1127 of the Civil Service Regulations. Mr. Mark Hunter thus seems to be eligible for travelling allowance from Bombay to Rajahmundry.

3. It is for consideration whether the D.P.I. may be told to pass the travelling allowance claimed by Mr. Mark Hunter.

It is not known to this office whether Mr. Hunter was recalled from leave owing to any neglect of duty on his part while he was Principal of the Rajahmundry College. If he is placed under suspension for reasons of this nature, travelling allowance will not be admissible to him without the sanction of the Government of India, vide para 3 under Article 1121 on page 176 of the Madras Supplement to the Civil Service Regulations. Ordinarily, travelling allowance from Bombay to Rajahmundry would be admissible to him under Article 1127, Civil Service Regulations.

Please see the Accountant General's note on page 2 supra.

2. Mr. Hunter has not been placed under suspension for any neglect of duty while he was Principal of the Rajahmundry College. He was recalled to duty before the expiry of his leave so that he might give evidence at the magisterial enquiry into the case against the college clerk. Vide notes on pages 19 and 20 of G.O.No.216 Edl., dated 25th April 1910. The question whether the Government should pay his voyage to India was at that time raised and the Secretary noted that it might abide the results of the trial. Mr. Hunter has already been allowed a free passage to India by the Secretary of State and the question for consideration at present is whether he should be allowed travelling allowance for his journey from Bombay to Rajahmundry.

F.H.
22-7-10

As matters stand at present, the case of Mr. Hunter is governed by Article 1127 of the C.S.D., and the pay of him of travelling allowance from Bombay to Rajahmundry is objectionable; but as the Secretary has noted on page 19 of G.O. No. 216 Edl. dated 25th April 1910, that the question of the pay of Mr. Hunter's passage might abide the result of the trial, it is for consideration whether the present claim for travelling allowance vide his note on p. 19 of G.O.

No. 216 Edl. T.
25-4-10

A / allowance from Bombay to Rajahmundry may at least be held over. The Secretary of State has provided Mr. Hunter with a free passage to India.

2. No report has yet been received from the D.P.G. regarding the result of the prosecution of the College Clerk.

The defalcation may have been facilitated by Mr. Hunter's neglect or carelessness in the matter of checking the acct. And it will be for order when we get a full report of the proceedings of the com whether he should be called upon to make good any of the loss sustained by the College.

T. I see I noted last April (page 19 G.O. No. 25-Apr. 1910.) that the question of paying his passage out

Might abide the result of the trial. The Sqs have provided him with a pre passage, and we need not I think withhold the TA for his journey from Rajahmundry to Bombay.

I understand that the papers will probably show that Mr. Hunter was very careless - and we shall probably have to recover passage money at all events from Mr. Hunter.
I do not think we can sanction the T.A.
until we have passed final orders on the defalcation case - and I would like to D.P. 1. 80. We ought to have that case before us very soon.
