SENATE HOUSE, 19 AUG 1910

FROM

The Manager in Charge, Office of the Registrar, University of Madras,

To

The Secretary to Government

Educational Department.

Sir,

I have the honour, by direction of the Syndicate, to draw the attention of Government to a mistake that has crept in in the appendix to Government Order No. 302-Educational, dated 27th May, 1910.

The Senate resolved that the substitution of the words "or translation into English from one of the classical and foreign languages named in Regulation 174" for the words "or if the candidate'sin English" be made in both the Regulations 178 II and 184 II, as stated in this office letter read in the order quoted above. But in the amended Regulation 184 II, printed in the appendix the words "or if the candidate's vernacular is other than one of the above or is English, Composition in English" have been retained, apparently, by oversight.

I am directed to request that Government will be pleased to order the necessary correction being made in

C.No. 1644 From the University of Madras No. 2483, dated 19-8-1910.

SUBJECT.

University Regulations.

The Syndicate of the University of Madras points out a mistake in the amended Regulation 184 II printed in the appendix to G.O. no. 302 bdl dated the 27th May 1910 and requests that it may be corrected.

2. The Secretary enquires how the mistake came to be committed. In its letter no 1006 dated 14th March 1910, the syndicate proposed a large number of alterations in Regulations 178, 184, 185, 186, 189 & 199 but submitted no draft of these Regulations embodying the alterations proposed. In approving the alterations it was thought that it would tend to clearness if the Regulations were revised and printed as an appendix to the order approving them and the Regulations were accordingly revised in the office. In carrying out the ^{small} alterations in the Regulations the words "or if the Candidate's vernacular" "is other than one of the above or is English," "Composition in English" in the first part of Regulation 184 II were not deleted by an oversight which is greatly regretted.

3. A corrigendum to the Regulations may it is submitted be issued. The draft below is for approval.

The Syndicate sent up the proposals in a most imperfect form and the attention of the Repub. looked up. Considerable time. I checked each & every item very carefully, but regret that the omission to score out the words enclosed in brackets at the end of Rule 104 II escaped my notice. The draft below may serve.

The mistake would not have occurred if the draft had been at all carefully checked in office.

Having undertaken to amend the Regs and print them with the order, the Office shoud at least have taken care to see that the amendments were correctly carried out. Whatever imperfection there may have been in other cases the amendments made in Regs 78 (ii) & 104 (ii) were perfectly clear & simple. W. Ed.

Clerk is most to blame of this gross piece of carelessness - and an entry will be made in the defaulters' book against him -

The Sup^t. will please check this Clerk's work more carefully in future.

The corrigendum may issue.
