permanently from passing the Upper Secondary Examination for employment as Preventive Officers in the Madras Customs House. Both of them are Europeans and of the class of officers referred to in para. 8 of Mr. Auston's letter No. 780, dated 11th April 1894 disposed of in G.O., No. 632, Revenue, dated 31st August 1894. Mr. Auston has passed VII Standard Examination, Government Board's Schools, England. Mr. Greenwood is a discharged soldier holding a 2nd class Army Educational Certificate; his service in the army is 13½ years and he was discharged on 25th November 1907. He was Colour Sergeant on discharge and Head Clerk to the Principal Medical Officer, 2nd Rawalpindi Division. The Board has already exempted these officers temporarily from the Examination rules, and they have been holding the appointment of Preventive Officers, sub-protem, since last April. The Collector of Customs reports that, when they officiate in higher grades, they are precluded from drawing the full acting allowance under article 90 of the Civil Service Regulations, and strongly urges their permanent exemption.

4 Encls In reply to Government Memorandum No. 1485 B/10-1 dated 6th August 10, the Board begs to state that Mr. Auston was appointed to the Customs Department as he possessed previous trade experience specially qualifying him for an appointment as appraiser. He was educated in England and had no opportunity of passing the prescribed Examinations which would qualify him for Government Service. The Board is satisfied that Mr. Auston is sufficiently educated for an appointment in the appraising Department of the Madras Custom House.

2 A brief note regarding the previous history of Mr. Auston as furnished by him is enclosed.

Educated in England and passed out of the 7th standard, entered the Retail trade with the Royal Arsenal Cooperative Society, Woolwich, a similar place to the Army and Navy stores, London. I went through various departments, Provisions, Oilman Stores, Hardware, Fancy goods and Leather goods and was finally placed in charge of the Gents Tailoring and Outfitting, in their Branch Establishment at Erith. I came out to India in March 1907 for Messrs. Wrenn Bennett & Co and placed in charge of their Outfitting department, I also had to deal with other goods, as Hardware, Fancy, Leather and piece goods and drapery on pay equivalent to Rs.250/- per mensem. I left Messrs. Wrenn Bennett at the end of March 1910 to take up my present appointment in the Madras Sea Customs in April.

C. No. 1425 From the Board of Revenue No. 1452 Salt dated 18. 7. 190

SUBJECT. Exemption from the examination rules of messrs G. T. Anston and A. Greenwood for employment as Preventive officers in the Madras Customs House.

The Board of Revenue recommends the permanent exemption from the provisions of Art. 1 of the Public Service Notification of messrs G. T. Anston and A. Greenwood for employment as Preventive officers in the Madras Customs House. The qualifications of both the Candidates are detailed in the Board's Reference on p. 2 of C.F.

2. The Board proposes to appoint one of the Candidates, Mr. Anston, as an Ag. Appraiser in the Customs House on a salary of Rs 200 p.m. In addition to the general educational qualification prescribed in Art. 1 of the Public Service Notification "Appraisers" in the Madras Customs House are required to have passed the Salt test G. in the Higher Grade. It is not, however, stated whether Anston has passed this test. Probably the Board will, under the powers vested in it under art 5, clause (2) of the Pub. Ser. Notif., grant him temporary exemption from that test for one year.

3. The remarks of the Revenue Department may, it is submitted, be obtained w.o. in the first instance, as to whether the Board's recommendation may be accepted.

To Secretary.

The Board of Revenue recom-mends the exemption from passing the Upper Secondary Examination of Messrs. G.T. Auston and A. Greenwood for employment as preventive officers in the Madras Custom House. Both of these are Europeans, and the Board says that they are of the class of officers who need not be necessarily passed men, as stated in para 8 of Mr. Austin's letter No. 780 of 11.4.1894 printed in G.O. No. 632 Rev. of 31.8.1894.
^{is stated to}
Mr. Auston ^{is stated to} have passed VII Standard Examination, Government Boards Schools, England, and Mr. Greenwood is reported to be a discharged soldier holding a 2nd class Army Educational Certificate, and to have been Colour
Sergeant on discharge and Head
Clerk to the Principal Medical Officer,
2nd Rawalpindi Division.

2. The Board of Revenue has already exempted these officers temporarily from the Examination rules and they are reported to have been holding the appoint-ment of Preventive officers, sub-protem.

The exemption is asked for "for employment as Preventive Officers in the Madras Customs House." Greenwood case is clear enough, as he is a British, soldier. I don't understand Auston's case; he is only 25 & what the ref. to para. 8 of Mr Austin's Letter of 11 Apr 1894 has to do with it is not apparent. Please ask the Bd to state what has been Mr Austin's previous history & what are the spl reasons for his exemption.
