Sir,

I have the honour to request that the time fixed for the completion of the work of providing additional accommodation for the Findlay College, Mannargudi, may be extended up to February 28, 1911 for the following reasons:-

(1) The local contractor, who at first undertook the work, found himself unable to carry it on satisfactorily, and accordingly arrangements had to be made with an outside contractor, who is now doing the work. The transfer of contract and the various matters connected therewith caused unexpected delay.

(2) It is exceedingly difficult to get suitable building materials in Mannargudi, and the work has therefore progressed more slowly than was ^{originally} expected. Such bricks as are available in or near the town are often inferior in quality and many have to be rejected. Materials from outside are only obtainable with considerable delay, as the town is nine miles from the nearest railway station, and that station is on a branch line.

(3) Some delay has been due to the transfer of correspondentship from the Rev. A.H. Davey to myself and the handing over of all the papers etc., in connection connection with the building work. Fair progress however is now being made and I am arranging for the work in future to be carried on as speedily as possible.

The date fixed in your Proceedings dated 26th October 1909, No. Dis. 6688 of 1909 for the completion of the work was August 31, 1910. I request that for the reasons stated above it may be extended to February 28, 1911.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,

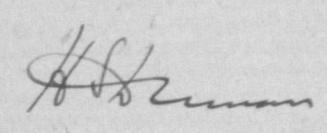

Your most obedient servant,

Please see the notes and orders with G.O. No. 549 Est., dated 6th October 1909, in which the time fixed in G.O. No. 410 Est., dated 27th June 1907 for the completion of the work under reference was extended up to the 31st August 1910. The Correspondent of the Firdlay College now requests further extension of time until February 28, 1911 for completing the work, and explains the circumstances which unavoidably delayed the progress of the work. No information is, however, furnished either by the Correspondent or by the D. P. G. as to what exactly has been done so far in carrying out the work, and the D. P. G. does not say whether he has satisfied himself that the work will be completed before the 28th February 1911, without further extension of time. In the circumstances explained in the Correspondent's letter, however, the extension of time up to the 28th February 1911, now applied, for may be granted.
