Miscellaneous. }
DEPARTMENT. } SIR,

In reply to your letter No. 1237-1, dated the 4th. July 1910, I am directed to refer to Mr. Taylor's letter No. 1160/XII-444/1908, dated the 7th. July 1909, in which information regarding the Panini Office was communicated. The Government of this province is supplying the office gratis with lists of Sanscrit manuscripts newly acquired for the Government College at Benares. It has been supplied free of cost with publications of archaeological value by the Governments of Burma, Bengal, Bombay and the Punjab. The office is doing good work in publishing religious and other books, and both the Government of India and the Government of the United Provinces have been purchasing copies of the published volumes of "The Sacred Books of the Hindus" series which the office is issuing.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

L. Stuart
