From (Name) A. Y. G. Campbell Esq., I.C.S.,

(Designation) Private Secretary to H.E. the Governor.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Educational Department.

Sir,

I am desired to transfer to you for disposal by Government the enclosed memorial from M.R.Y. Rao Sahib P.T. Shatagopa Chariar, Editor of the Desabhimani, South Arcot, dated 6th September 1910.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

A. Y. G. Campbell

Private Secretary.

His Excellency the Governor in-Council, Madras.

The humble memorial of M.R.Ry., Rao Sahib
P.T. Shatagopa Chariar, Editor of the Desabhimani, South Arcot, on behalf of the public of Cuddalore,
most respectfully sheweth:--

1. G.O. No. 157 of 25-3-10 expressed the intention of the authorities, that in respect of the future of the Government Training School Cuddalore, South Arcot, when the reorganisation of Government Training Schools comes into force, the Government Training School at the said place will have ceased to exist.

2. The town and such of those discerning folks that live in places near thereto, have received the said G.O. 157 with considerable pain and feelings that the Government should so have deemed it necessary to abolish the said school.

3. The teaching profession and the parents and guardians of the young ones that resort to the self-same institution, experienced and felt in the identical spirit of sorrow at the declared communication of the Government.

4. Nevertheless, the elite of the town,
the families that seek education for their children

3

do yearn and mightily desire that the institution may continue and do feel strongly that the Government should be approached once again to induce them to re-consider the situation and forbear from doing away with a highly useful institution at the head-quarters of the district, so well and eminently suited to and convenient to the elementary pupil teachers under training, the pupils and the general public at large.

5. The memorialist doubtless feels it uncalled for to state here in what is so well known, in respect of the advantages of Cuddalore, in favour of the institution being retained here; its history that is, that of Cuddalore and Fort St. David every school boy knows: the bay is so near, the town is so spacious, the two rivers of Pennar and Gadilam run so close by, that life is happily lived and living itself is so cheap and hopeful in point of health and sanitation.

6. The argument that the town is the head-quarters of the District may strike for or tell against the proposal and submission of the memorialist and yet the memorialist does state that head-quarters of a district do carry along with it certain decided advantages which a moffussil town cannot command, such as the best intelligence of the District being gathered in the centre, a modest degree of trade, and a communication by the sea borne traffic. The memorialist states what is a common practice, the purchase of foodstuffs, grains, meat and other necessaries more cheaply and quickly here than elsewhere.

7. And is

cast aside their conventional little gain by very much, in contact with nature surely, Cuddalore has that charm and beauty that ear and eye can have far more than any other in the Sixth Educational Circle.

8. In respect of like other points in view of the desire of the people of South Arcot, it may perhaps be mentioned that if to-morrow statistics are invented, there will hardly be one in a hundred amongst us here who will wish it contrariwise, regard being had to the fact that in the whole presidency, there are not two towns that can dare compete with Cuddalore in point of space, sea, river, grove and tree, quietness, and smoothness of life and indeed so full of all the advantages that the teaching profession requires.

9. The close proximity of the Palur Government Agricultural Farm to Cuddalore will prove a stronger reason for the retention of the training school at Cuddalore as thereby the elementary teachers under training have opportunities to acquire practical knowledge in improved agriculture, so as to enable them to advance the material prosperity of the country.

10. That in view of the fact that higher education has gone beyond the reach of the middle and poorer classes and that the Government in its bounty want to spread elementary education, it will be against the interests of the people, if the opening darga, so as to serve as a district.

11. So, may the memorialist be teaching profession and the school going popul may not be deprived of such historical, natural other good environments and not be relegated to other place having ~~none~~ such educative forces.

12. The memorialist prays in conclusion that the Government be again graciously pleased to re-consider their G.O. No. 157 above referred to and cancel the said order and be so good as to see their way to retain and let live the Government Train ing school at Cuddalore, for which the whole district will be thankful for ever more.

The humble memorialist begs leave to remain,

Your Excellency's most obed
and humble serva

Please see G.O.No.157, Edl., dated 25th March 1910, and the notes therewith. In that order two memorials from the inhabitants of Cuddalore protesting against the abolition of the elementary training school at that place, which was approved in G.O.No.155, Edl., dated 15th March 1909, were considered and rejected. Attention is solicited to the notes on pages 17 and 18 of G.O.No.157 Edl., dated 25th March 1910.

2. M.R.Ry. Rao Sahib P.T. Shatakopa Chariyar, Editor of the Desabhimani, South Arcot, now submits a memorial requesting that the Government will be pleased to reconsider G.O. No.157, Edl., dated 25th March 1910, and to retain the Elementary Training School at Cuddalore.

3. It is for consideration whether this memorial may be referred to the D.P.I. for remarks. The previous memorials were not referred to him.

The reference to the D.P.G., is suggested with reference to the above orders of the H.M. Perhaps the papers may be sent to him -

There is, I submit, nothing in this memorial to warrant a reconsideration of G.O. 157. B.

G.O. 157- 25.11.10.

There is at present a 'Lena Secondary' training school at Villupuram for which a building has recently been constructed at a cost of Rs 49,224. The elementary training school at Cuddalore is housed in a rented building.

The present policy is to reduce & concentrate the training schools not to multiply them. I submit therefore that there is no likelihood of the

Elementary Training School
at Cuddalore being retained.

It seems unnecessary in this case to refer to the D.P.I. We may tell them informally that in consequence of the existence of a good job being at Vellapuram - it will probably be necessary to move the Cuddalore School there & give up the school at the latter place & that we expect we cannot allow the orders already given -

I am not sure now how we stand in this matter - Cuddalore School I suppose will not be closed until we hear again from the D.P.I. I wish a reply from him this day on this matter?

A report from the D.P.L. is still due on the question of the reorganization of the Training schools with reference to Memo.No.1678-1 Educational, dated 16th September 1909, in which he has been requested to consider whether the number of Training schools cannot be further reduced. The school at Cuddalore will not be closed until the scheme for the reorganization of the Training schools, which will be submitted to India on receipt of the D.P.L.'s reply to Memo. No.1678-1, dated 16th September 1909, has been sanctioned by the Secretary of State.

ORDER: Ms. N^o 572 of 3. 10. 10.

With reference to his memorial dated 6th September 1910, M.R.Ry., Rao Sahib P.T. Shatagopa Charliyer will be informed that the Government regret their inability to modify the orders already passed in respect of the abolition of the Cuddalore Training school, as they consider the maintenance of two training schools at places so contiguous as Villipurem and Cuddalore unnecessary. The reorganized training school must be located at the former place in preference to the latter as a suitable building has recently been constructed there.
