Station Madras, Dated the 15th September 1910.

From (Name) H. Douglas Robertson, Esquire,

(Designation) Ag. Insp.-Genl. of Police, Madras.

To The Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Sir,

I have the honour to request that Government will be pleased to exempt one Mr. John Turner from the provisions of Article 1 of the Public Service Notification for employment as a Sub-Inspector of Police.

He is a European and is the son of Mr. G. J. Turner, late Superintendent, Military Prison and Barracks, Poona.
He is 18 years old and has studied up to the Matriculation Standard. He can speak Tamil and Hindustani. The Superintendent of Police, Civil and Military Station, Bangalore, reports that Mr. Turner is a well set up young man and, with training, will make a good Police officer. I recommend that he may be exempted from the Examination rules on the ground of his father's long service.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

for Ag. Insp.-Genl. of Police.

My dear Meyer

I fancy the question of admitting the young fellow (to whom the enclosed letters refer) to the Police will probably come before you. I hope you may be able to find time to read them.
They will tell you practically all that I know of the case.

Yrs sincerely

NOTES.

8

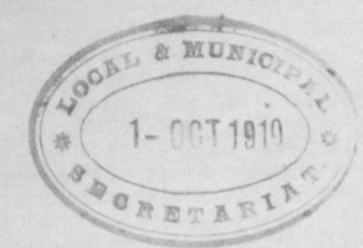

If this young man had attained the requisite age; I should be inclined to give him exemption on the ground of his father's good service. As however, he is only 18 while a man who is directly appointed as a Sub-Inspector must be not less than 21, I think the application must be refused on this ground. It can be renewed if necessary when Mr. Turner attains the requisite age.

Japer to boy is too young. But Lions who would exempt him a year hence, if he is recommended then & continues as a school - then then to be to renew his application, if the boy then wants it a year hence.

On 29th August you wrote to me about a young Mr. Turner, son of Lieutenant George Turner, of Poona, who wanted to get into the Police Dept. On the 15th September the I.G. of Police submitted an official application for the exemption of this young man from the usual examn. tests in view to his employment as a Sub Inspector of Police. In view ^{however,} of the lad's extreme youth (he is only 18), the Govt. do not consider his employment as Sub Inspector ^{at present} desirable, and have accordingly told the I.G. to renew the application a year hence if Mr. Turner should then still desire police employ.

I return the enclosures sent with your letter.
