Extract from the notes on the Administration
Report of the Inspector General of Prisons, 1909:--

As regards the Reformatory I think as many boys as the place will hold are sent there every year. We have added to the accommodation of the Reformatory not long ago and I don't think very many cases are refused now, but enquiries might be made on the point.

[memo. No. 1823-1 Exd by 17th September 1910
From the D.P. J. Re. No. 6189 / 10 dy 4-10-10.

p. 2 of C.F.

The D.P. J reports that ^{from} ~~since~~ 1909 accommodation for 250 boys is available in the Reformatory School Chingleput, and that in that year no application was rejected for want of accommodation. The strength of the School on 31st December 1909 was 231. It would thus appear that the accommodation now available is enough, for the present, regard being had also to the vacancies that may be created by

by the discharge from the School of some of the pupils in the usual course.

2. Submitted that the Director's letter may be recorded. The draft order placed below may issue with the Concurrence of the Judicial Dept.

The strength in 1909 was 231, while accommodation was available for 250.

We may perhaps ask Educ' for advice to let us see the notes after issue.

It is for order whether any action should be taken in judicial in the direction of drawing D.Ms' attention to the desirability of making greater use of the Reformatory Act.

2. As regards the space capacity of the Reformatory, the figures submitted show that ^{at} the end of 1909, there was space unoccupied, and that no applications were rejected for want of accommodation in that year and only one in 1908 when the accommodation was ^{less} than it now is. Nothing appears to be required at present, but H.M. should see with reference to his note of 24th August.
