Mr. H. Dodwell.

Submitting to the Secretary of State for orders the question of the date from which

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

Letter—from H. DODWELL, Esq., Acting Vice-Principal, Teachers' College, Saidapet.

To—the Director of Public Instruction (through the Principal).

Dated—the 19th July 1910.

With reference to the date from which my appointment into the Indian Educational Service takes effect under R.C. No. 2976, dated 4th July 1910, I have the honour to submit that two officers were appointed to the service with effect from 29th January 1910 and 5th February 1910, and, since my appointment is only dated 5th March 1910, I am placed below them although I have been acting continuously in the service since July 1909. If you would be pleased to do so, I would request that steps be taken to give effect to my appointment from some date earlier than 29th January 1910. Since the post to which I have been appointed was sanctioned some time prior to that date, the alteration which I request is possible, and, if it could be made, I should be relieved of what is, I trust, the undeserved disadvantage of being junior to officers who only joined the service more than six months after I was entertained in it.

No. 106-D., dated 20th July 1910.

Submitted.

A. A. HALL,
Principal.

N. Ref. on C. No. 2976, dated 3rd September 1910.

Submitted to Government for favour of orders.

2. Mr. Dodwell was appointed temporary Professor of History in the Presidency College on 5th July 1909 for a period of eight months—vide G.O., No. 497, Educational, dated 27th August 1909, but on the return of Mr. Allen from leave on the 22nd December 1909 he was posted to the Teachers' College, Saidapet, as Acting Vice-Principal which office he still continues to hold. Later he was appointed a permanent member of the Indian Educational Service and Professor of English in the Presidency College with effect from 5th March 1910 and without prejudice to his acting appointment at Saidapet. As Mr. Dodwell has been in the Indian Educational Service continuously since 5th July 1909 his contention that he should be ranked above Dr. Simonsen and Mr. Green who were admitted to the Indian Educational Service only on the 29th January and 5th February 1910 respectively seems to be sound.

3. In this connection, the position of Mr. Champion also merits consideration. He entered the Indian Educational Service in November 1908 as an Acting Inspector of Schools (G.O., No. 787, Educational, dated 24th November 1908) in the arrangement consequent on Mr. Logan's leave, and was appointed permanently to that service as the Vice-Principal of the Teachers' College, Saidapet, with effect from the 3rd January 1910, the date of Mr. Logan's retirement. His position in the list should therefore be above Mr. Couldrey who entered service two months later.

4. Taking the dates of their first appointment into consideration the position of the officers from Mr. Champion downwards should, it seems to me, stand as follows :—

Name.	Date of first appointment in the Indian Educational Service.
(1) Mr. Champion	21st November 1908.
(2) Mr. Couldrey	28th January 1909.
(3) Mr. Kershaw	6th February 1909.
(4) Mr. Dodwell	5th July 1909.
(5) Mr. Simonsen	29th January 1910.
(6) Mr. Green	5th February 1910.

I beg to add that the postings of Messrs. Champion and Dodwell which have been made with regard merely to the convenience of the department are hardly to be taken into account in determining their rank in the Indian Educational Service.

A. G. BOURNE,
Director of Public Instruction.

Order—No. 612, Educational, dated 2nd November 1910.

Mr. Dodwell's case will be submitted to the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for orders.

(True Extract.)

A. BUTTERWORTH,
Ag. Secretary to Government.

To the Director of Public Instruction.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 612, EDUCATIONAL,
DATED 2ND NOVEMBER 1910.

[SUBJECT.—Position of Messrs. Champion and Dodwell in the Indian Educational Service.]

From the Director of Public Instruction, dated 3rd September 1910, No. 2976.

The Director of Public Instruction considers that Messrs. Champion and Dodwell should be ranked in the Indian Educational Service with reference to the dates of their first appointment and not with reference to the dates of their permanent appointment to that service.

2. The case of Mr. Champion presents no difficulty. He was in the first instance appointed to serve as a member of the Indian Educational Service and an Inspector of Schools in Madras for the term of two years from the date of his entering upon the performance of his duties and paragraph 7 of his agreement, printed with G.O., No. 787, Educational, dated 24th November 1908, provides that if he shall continue to serve Government after the above said term of two years, his service commencing from the date of his entering upon the performance of his duties, shall count as service towards leave and pension. Mr. Champion will therefore count service from the date of his first appointment and will rank accordingly in the Indian Educational Service list.

3. Mr. Dodwell was in the first instance appointed to serve as temporary Professor of History in the Presidency College, Madras, for a period of eight months from the 5th July 1909 and on the termination of this period was appointed to be permanent additional Professor of English in the Presidency College, with effect from the 5th March 1910. Mr. Dodwell's agreement which was executed when he was appointed temporary Professor of History in the Presidency College, does not contain any provision similar to that contained in paragraph 7 of Mr. Champion's agreement above referred to, for counting his service from the 5th July 1909 towards leave and pension. But as he has served in the Indian Educational Service continuously since the 5th July 1909 he may perhaps be allowed to count service from the 5th July 1909 for purposes of his position in the Indian Educational Service. The Accountant-General may be consulted u.o. as to whether there is any objection to this being done.

T. KANAKASUNDARAM PILLAI—13-9-10.

S. H. SLATER—14-9-10.

To the Accountant-General.

OFFICE OF THE ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL.

There is no objection to Mr. Champion being ranked between Messrs. Hadaway and Couldry, as he was permanently employed in the Indian Educational Service from the date of his appointment on 24th November 1908 according to the terms of his agreement.

2. As regards Mr. Dodwell, if Government should desire to place him between Messrs. Kershaw and Simonsen on the ground that he was first appointed (though temporarily) on 5th July 1909, the Secretary of State should be addressed to consider him as permanent in the Indian Educational Service with effect from 5th July 1909 instead of with effect from 5th March 1910 (vide G.O., No. 363, Mis., Educational, dated 23rd June 1910). He would in that case be entitled to draw pay at Rs. 550 per mensem from 5th July 1910, instead of from 5th March 1911 as under present circumstances.

J. F. GRAHAM—20-9-10.

To the Educational Department.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

It is for consideration whether the Secretary of State should be addressed to consider Mr. Dodwell as having been appointed permanently to the Indian Educational Service with effect from the 5th July 1909, the date on which he began to act as Temporary Professor of History in the Presidency College, in the place of Mr. Allen—vide paragraph 2 of the Accountant-General's note on the previous page.

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—23-9-10.

S. H. SLATER—23-9-10.

The Secretary of State may, I submit, be addressed.

L. M. WYNCH—27-9-10.

I cannot see anything to explain why there was this distinction between the two agreements, and I do not feel sure that Messrs. Simonsen and Green will not have a grievance if Mr. Dodwell were appointed for a temporary appointment, goes over their heads. However, I think, the fact should be stated to the Secretary of State and his orders taken.

M. H[AMMICK]—28-8-10.

Please draft.

L. M. WYNCH—29-9-10.

A draft is submitted for approval.

T.K.—1-10-10.

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—3-10-10.

I am not sure if the draft is correct. Have not both Messrs. Simonsen and Green been appointed only for 2 years like Mr. Champion and what is the difference between their agreements in this respect?

M. S. MASCARENHAS—5-10-10.

There appears to be no difference between the agreements of Messrs. Simonsen and Green who were appointed in England and that of Mr. Champion who was appointed in India, except that in the latter the provisions * relating to the payment and refund of passage money have been omitted. The difference between the agreements of Mr. Champion and Mr. Dodwell is that in the former the appointment is made to the Indian Educational Service while in Mr. Dodwell's case, he is simply appointed as temporary Professor of History in the Presidency College and no reference is made to the Indian Educational Service.

It seems however to be unnecessary to make mention in the despatch to the Secretary of State of the case of Mr. Champion at all. A revised draft is submitted for approval.

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—7-10-10.

M. S. MASCARENHAS—7-10-10.

L. M. WYNCH—8-10-10.

We need not say anything about Mr. Simonsen and Mr. Green's grievance. The Secretary of State must judge the case on its merits. I am inclined to think that Mr. Dodwell should be counted as in the Educational Service from the earlier date, but the case is not free from doubt.

Letter to the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for India.

No. 3, 2nd November 1910.

SUBMITTING for orders the question of the date from which Mr. Henry Dodwell, Additional Professor of English in the Presidency College, Madras, should be considered to have become a member of the Indian Educational Service.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

To

THE RIGHT HONOURABLE THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR INDIA.

MY LORD,

We have the honour to address you on the question of the date from which Mr. Henry Dodwell, who was recently appointed additional Professor of English in the Presidency College, Madras, should be considered to have become a member of the Indian Educational Service.

2. Mr. Dodwell was first appointed temporary Professor of History in the Presidency College, Madras, for a period of eight months from the 5th July 1909, and on the expiration of that period he was, on the 4th March 1910, appointed permanently to the Indian Educational Service as additional Professor of English in the same college. Subsequent to Mr. Dodwell's appointment as temporary Professor of History, but previous to his confirmation as additional Professor of English, Messrs. J. L. Simonsen and E. W. Green were appointed to the Indian Educational Service and joined their appointments on the 29th January and 5th February 1910, respectively. Mr. Dodwell has submitted a petition urging that, as he has been in the Indian Educational Service continuously since the 5th July 1909, he should be ranked above Messrs. Simonsen and Green. In view of the fact that, at the time of his appointment, Mr. Dodwell was informed, with reference to Sir Charles Lyall's letter No. J & P. 3223, dated 15th January 1909, that, if his work was satisfactory, he would be recommended to the Secretary of State for a permanent appointment, we request your orders as to whether Mr. Dodwell may be considered to have been a member of the Indian Educational Service from the 5th July 1909, the date from which he was appointed temporary Professor of History of the Presidency College, and be allowed to take rank above Messrs. Simonsen and Green.

We have the honour to be,

My Lord,

Your Lordship's most obedient, humble servants,

ARTHUR LAWLEY.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SECRETARIAT.

- (a) If a paper is marked to be printed urgently, the Superintendent of the section concerned should sign the Press slip. The Superintendent should exercise a careful discretion in the matter.
- (b) Each letter, memorandum, or order, or set of orders, in the file of correspondence should be headed in succession with the Roman numeral I, II, III, etc., the number being written in red ink or blue chalk above the item. The particular papers to be printed in the special issue-copies should be indicated by the Roman numeral (I, II, etc.) by which that item has been headed in the correspondence file. All matter, including marginal remarks or references, to be printed should be written in ink and matter which should not be printed should be encircled. Initials and signatures that are not quite legible should be re-written distinctly.
- (b¹) For rules regarding printing of notes, see the rules in G.O., No. 1220, Public, dated 30th November 1900.
- (c) The number of copies and the details of distribution should be filled in by the Superintendent or Referencer concerned.
- (d) In the absence of special instructions to the Press to keep matter standing for a specified period, ordinary papers of 8 pages and under will be kept standing for one week, and larger papers for two weeks only. The type of notes and of all confidential papers is distributed immediately after striking.
- (e) This slip, properly and completely filled in, should accompany every paper sent to Press; it will be returned by the Press when proofs are furnished; it should be sent to the Press when a call is made for revised proofs or when a corrected proof is sent for striking. When finally returned by Press it should be filed with the original order or letter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PRESS.

- (a) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent of the Press, a paper has been marked urgent unnecessarily, he should send the Press slip to the Deputy Registrar with a remark to that effect.
- (b) Unless a note to the contrary is made against the matter, pencil entries should not be printed. The Superintendent of the Press may bring to the notice of the Deputy Registrar any instance of incomplete or careless editing.
- (c) Signature copies of letters to the Secretary of State or to the Government of India should be printed on hand-made paper.
- (d) This slip should be returned by the Press to the Secretariat when proofs are furnished; it will be sent back to the Press when proofs are returned corrected and should be finally returned to the Secretariat when struck-off copies are supplied.
- (e) The names of the Secretary and Members should be printed in full when they occur on the right hand side, but only the first time when they appear on the left side, the initials alone being printed later.
