EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

Sir,

I have the honour to request that Government will be pleased to exempt First Grade Head constable P. Raman Nambiar of the Nilgiri district from the provisions of Article 1 of the Public Service Notification for employment as a Sub-Inspector of Police.

2. He was enlisted as a constable in 1900 and has a service of over 10 years. He has earned two Good service entries and has only one defaulter entry.
He can read and write English and is a steady and reliable man, and I consider him most suitable for the post of Sub-Inspector. I therefore recommend that he may be exempted from the Examination rules for appointment as a Sub-Inspector.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

NOTES.

SUBJECT. application for the exemption of
P. Raman Nambijar for employment as a Sub-Inspector of Police.

Q. Atkinson on pages 4 and 5 of Gons. 492 Evids 17-8-10, ^{where} ~~where~~ he has observed that "the general rule should be that these applications for exemption should be ~~supported~~ ^{opposed} ~~on public grounds~~". Please see also the Hon'ble Mr. (now Sir George) Forbes' observations in his note on pages 6 and 7 of Gons. 93 Evids 13th February 1909.

2. The remarks of the Judicial Department may be obtained
w/o. in the first instance.

The I.G. does not state what ^{actual} ~~exactly~~ the educational attainments of his nominee are and up to what Standard he was Educated. He says merely that this person can read and write English. Information on the above point may also be obtained by Ins^r. from RO the I.G. of Police.

The application for exemption is not supported by public grounds and it may be refused.

Under Police Order 228, a small proportion of Sub Inspectors (not more than 15 per cent of the appointments) may be recruited from the head constables' grade. Under Co. No. 1242 Td 8 7.8.05 (para. 1), head constables who held permanent appointments as head constables on the date of the said order (7th Aug/05) are exempt from the examination rules for promotion to the Sub Inspectors' grade.

2. In the present case, Raman Nambiar was enlisted as a constable in 1900 & has a service of ^{over} 10 years. He is now a first grade head constable & it is not known when he was permanently promoted to the head constables' grade. If it were prior to 7th August 1905, his case would fall under the Co. of 1905 quoted above & no special exemption will be necessary. It is ^{perhaps possible} ~~not unlikely~~ that the D. G.'s office has overlooked the provisions of the said Co. Before considering the present application, information may be obtained on the point noted above. If this is agreed to

For U.S.

The J.G. reply has been received.
From it, it is seen that P. Raman Nambiyar was permanently promoted to the head constable's grade from 1st May 1906. Co. No. 1242 J & 7-8-05 (para 1) does not therefore apply to his case.
His exemption should therefore be specially sanctioned by Govt. For orders as to whether this will be done as recommended by the J.G.

2. Raman Nambiyar was enlisted as a constable in 1900 & has a service of over 10 years. He has earned two good service entries & has only one defaulting entry. He can read & write English, having passed the Lower Secondary Examination in 1892. Mr. Robertson (of J.G. Golie) considers him a steady & reliable man & most suitable for the post.
