For the Reg.

With reference to the A.S.'s query on page 2 supra, it is submitted that, of the two copies supplied to the Secy Library, one is intended for the Madras & the other for the City Library. None of the copies can therefore be spared for the Presidency College unless it is thought that the book is of sufficient practical importance to be placed in both the libraries, City as well as Madras. The book was twice requisitioned for since its receipt in the library in September 1909.

*See N.V.
12.11.10*
We can't spare either of the Secy Library copies.
