Empowering the Inspector-General of Police to promote, without further sanction of Government, to any clerical post in the District and Sub-Division Police offices in the Presidency, the salary of which does not exceed Rs. 30 per mensem, unpassed men who have put in a service of ten or more years.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

Letter—from H. DOUGLAS-ROBERTSON, Esq., Acting Inspector-General of Police, Madras.
To—the Chief Secretary to Government.
Dated—the 6th October 1910.
No.—R.C. 3604-Genl.

I have the honour to request that Government will be pleased to empower the Inspector-General of Police to promote unpassed men who have put in ten years' service and over as clerks in District and Sub-Division Police offices up to Rs. 30 permanent.

2. At present, under G.O., No. 511, Educational, dated 9th July 1908, unpassed men can be appointed as clerks up to Rs. 20 permanent, and under G.O., No. 591, Educational, dated 10th August 1908, I can sanction the promotion of such men up to Rs. 30 in acting and sub. pro tem. vacancies only without any limit of time. I cannot, however, without the special sanction of Government in each case, promote permanently unpassed men however senior and deserving they may be. There are a number of such clerks at present in District offices and to debar them from the benefit of the increased pay under the reorganization of office establishments will have a detrimental effect upon their efficiency.

Order—No. 649, Educational, dated 15th November 1910.

The Inspector-General of Police will be empowered to promote, without further sanction, to any clerical post in the District and Sub-Division Police offices in the Presidency, the salary of which does not exceed Rs. 30 per mensem, unpassed persons who have put in a service of ten or more years as clerks in those offices and who are otherwise fit for promotion.

NOTES TO G.O., No. 649, EDUCATIONAL, DATED 15TH NOVEMBER 1910.

[SUBJECT.—Delegation to the Inspector-General of Police of power to promote unpassed men with ten years' service up to Rs. 30 permanent.]

Previous papers:

G.O., No. 511, Edl., dated 9th July 1908.
" " 591 " " 10th August "
" " 524 " " 3rd September 1910.

From the Inspector-General of Police, dated 6th October 1910, No. 3604.

The acting Inspector-General of Police (Mr. Douglas-Robertson) requests that he may be empowered to promote unpassed men who have put in ten years' service (and over) as clerks in the district and sub-division police offices up to Rs. 30 permanent.

2. Under article 4 (3) of the Public Service Notification the Inspector-General of Police, like other heads of departments, such as the Director of Public Instruction, the Surgeon-General and the Inspector-General of Registration, has power to "sanction the employment of unpassed candidates in acting and sub. pro tem. vacancies "and in temporary posts without limit of time when the sanctioned pay of the appointment is not more than Rs. 30 per mensem, and for a period not exceeding "twelve months when the sanctioned pay of the appointment is not more than Rs. 50 "per mensem." He now applies for power to promote unpassed clerks in permanent vacancies up to a pay limit of Rs. 30 per mensem. There appears to be little reason for granting this power. The unpassed men in the Police Department entered the service with the full knowledge that they would not be eligible for promotion like passed men and can have no grievance if they are not given promotion which they are not eligible for; and if power is given to the Inspector-General of Police to promote unpassed men, it cannot be denied with any justification to the other heads of departments mentioned in article (3) of the Public Service Notification.

3. In G.O., No. 524, Educational, dated 3rd September 1910, the District Superintendents of Police in the Ceded districts have been empowered to promote, without further sanction, to any clerical post the salary of which does not exceed Rs. 30 per mensem, unpassed men who have been specially exempted from the examination rules for employment as clerks in the district and sub-division police offices and who are found fit for promotion. This case, however, is special. The power was granted on the ground that it was difficult to get passed clerks in the Ceded districts and the concession applies only to those who have been specially exempted by Government for employment as clerks in the district and sub-division police offices in the Ceded districts.

4. The file may, it is submitted, be forwarded to the Judicial Department u.o. for remarks.

2. The arguments in the concluding portion of paragraph 2 of Educational note, against giving larger powers to the Inspector-General of Police seem entitled to consideration, but on the other hand this department has held, in the notes under G.O., No. 524, Educational, dated 3rd September 1910, which the Educational department consider to be a "special" case, that unpassed clerks in Police offices in Ceded districts who had been exempted for first appointment, might go up to Rs. 30 per mensem permanent, without further exemption, the grounds for that concession being (1) that clerical work in Police offices is mostly copying and registration and (2) that appointments on Rs. 20, 25, 30 in those offices in the Ceded districts may be roughly considered to be for routine work which the unpassed clerks are competent to discharge. These reasons are common apparently to all Police offices, and on the strength of them perhaps, the grant of extended powers to the Inspector-General of Police may be justified.

V.S.R.—3-11-10.

The grounds upon which G.O., No. 524, Educational, dated 3rd September 1910, was based would seem to be of general application, and not restricted to the special case of the Ceded districts. Please see the late Chief Secretary's note at pages 2 and 3 of the notes to that Government Order, especially the latter part of paragraph 2. "Fitness" is there laid down as the only qualification necessary up to Rs. 30; and the present application makes provision for this by limiting the proposed concession to clerks who have put in ten years' service (presumably satisfactory service).

2. The present proposal is distinct from the cases contemplated by the existing orders on the subject (G.Os., No. 511, Educational, dated 5th July 1908, and No. 591, Educational, dated 10th August 1908) in that it relates to promotions of clerks already in employment, whereas these orders dealt mainly with persons who might be newly employed.

S. H. SLATER—4-11-10.

The principle laid down in Sir William Meyer's note, dated 25th August 1910 would cover not only all Police offices but all offices, and so far as those posts are concerned "for which industry and accuracy are the chief qualifications," unpassed men would be eligible.

As in Police offices it has been held that the posts on Rs. 20, 25 and 30 are of the character above described, the Inspector-General's present proposal may be sanctioned, though the grounds on which he puts it forward are not the right ones.

A. G. CARDEW—6-11-10.

Yes. I agree. The Inspector-General's proposal may be sanctioned.

PRESS SLIP.

ORDINARY.

PREFERENCE.

URGENT (a).

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SECRETARIAT.

(a) If a paper is marked to be printed urgently, the Superintendent of the section concerned should sign the Press slip. The Superintendent should exercise a careful discretion in the matter.

(b) Each letter, memorandum, or order, or set of orders, in the file of correspondence should be headed in succession with the Roman numeral I, II, III, etc., the number being written in red ink or blue chalk above the item. The particular papers to be printed in the special issue-copies should be indicated by the Roman numeral (I, II, etc.) by which that item has been headed in the correspondence file. All matter, including marginal remarks or references, to be printed should be written in ink and matter which should not be printed should be encircled. Initials and signatures that are not quite legible should be re-written distinctly.

(b¹) For rules regarding printing of notes, see the rules in G.O., No. 1220, Public, dated 30th November 1900.

(c) The number of copies and the details of distribution should be filled in by the Superintendent or Referencer concerned.

(d) In the absence of special instructions to the Press to keep matter standing for a specified period, ordinary papers of 8 pages and under will be kept standing for one week, and larger papers for two weeks only. The type of notes and of all confidential papers is distributed immediately after striking.

(e) This slip, properly and completely filled in, should accompany every paper sent to Press; it will be returned by the Press when proofs are furnished; it should be sent to the Press when a call is made for revised proofs or when a corrected proof is sent for striking. When finally returned by Press it should be filed with the original order or letter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PRESS.

(a) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent of the Press, a paper has been marked urgent unnecessarily, he should send the Press slip to the Deputy Registrar with a remark to that effect.

(b) Unless a note to the contrary is made against the matter, pencil entries should not be printed. The Superintendent of the Press may bring to the notice of the Deputy Registrar any instance of incomplete or careless editing.

(c) Signature copies of letters to the Secretary of State or to the Government of India should be printed on hand-made paper.

(d) This slip should be returned by the Press to the Secretariat when proofs are furnished; it will be sent back to the Press when proofs are returned corrected and should be finally returned to the Secretariat when struck-off copies are supplied.

(e) The names of the Secretary and Members should be printed in full when they occur on the right hand side, but only the first time when they appear on the left side, the initials alone being printed later.
