2. Vasudeva Aiyar has completed his 55th year. His retention in service till 15th March 1911 has been sanctioned. Vasudeva Aiyar should therefore retire from service on the 16th March 1911, unless the period of his retention is further extended. From Col. 7 of the application it will be observed that the Board has already exempted Vasudeva Aiyar from the examination rules up to 15th March 1911, that is, up to the date of his retention in the service. The permanent exemption now applied for will not be of any use if he should retire from the service on 16th March 1911, as he should do

Submitted yes; but the point of the office is that as Vasudeva Aiyar is to be retained in ~~post~~ Service only until the 15th March 1911 and as the Board has already exempted him temporarily till then, there is no object in granting him a permanent exemption or in appointing him permanently to the post, unless the intention is to keep him on for some time longer. If permanent exemption
