NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 667, EDUCATIONAL,
DATED 23RD NOVEMBER 1910.

[SUBJECT.—Vesting of the Bourne and Lawley prizes endowment in the Treasurer of Charitable Endowments.]

" " 350 " " 16th June 1910.
" " 546 " " 15th Sept. "

From the Director of Public Instruction, dated 27th October 1910, No. 3788.

In G.O., No. 350, Educational, dated 16th June 1910, the Government accepted the offer made by the Principal, Government Training College, Rajahmundry, on behalf of the teachers' association attached to the college, to endow two prizes in connection with the college, one in the name of His Excellency Sir Arthur Lawley and the other in that of the Hon'ble Mr. A. G. Bourne, and requested the Director of Public Instruction to submit two formal applications under the Charitable Endowments Act, 1890, one for vesting the fund in the Treasurer of Charitable Endowments and the other for settling a scheme for its administration. The applications called for are now submitted by the Director of Public Instruction.

2. A draft order is submitted for approval.

3. According to the scheme now submitted, the Principal for the time being of the Arts College, Rajahmundry, and the Vice-Principal for the time being of the Government Training College at Rajahmundry shall be the administrators of the endowment. But in view of the fact that the college department of the Government Training College, Rajahmundry, will shortly be abolished, it is for consideration whether the name of some other officer may be substituted for that of the Vice-Principal, Training College. Perhaps the Director of Public Instruction may be consulted u.o.

P.R.—5-11-10.

Submitted that the papers may first be sent u.o. to the Director of Public Instruction for remarks with reference to paragraph 3 of the office-note above.

K. RANGASWAMI AYYANGAR—8-11-10.

C. A. INNES—9-11-10.

To the Director of Public Instruction.

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.

It may easily be necessary to award the prizes before there is a headmaster of the model school and it seems to me that there may be an interval in which there will be neither a Vice-Principal nor a headmaster so styled. It would save trouble if the administrators were to be the Principal of the college and the Senior Lecturer for the time being.

2. I don't know whether I am in order in so doing, but I should like to invite reconsideration of the terms of award for the Lawley scholarship. We are continually asserting that there is no such thing as a pass in the Secondary school leaving certificate examinations—moreover it will be difficult to say who “passes” first. Is it the boy who gets the largest number of marks on the whole? This may be what is meant, but it is not good way of estimating the value of a certificate.

A | I would suggest to substitute for “who passes first secures” “whose “secondary school leaving certificate is considered to furnish the best evidence
 “of a satisfactory career in the high school forms provided that it shows” or if this
B | would not meet the wishes of the donors that in place of “passes first at”
 “secures the highest aggregate of marks in” might be inserted.

If my suggestion about the other administrator be not approved, I think it would be as well to leave the Vice-Principal and change later.

J. H. STONE—9-11-10.

To the Educational Department.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

As suggested by the Director of Public Instruction, the administrators of the “endowment fund may be put down as “The Principal and the Senior Lecturer for “the time being of the Government Arts College at Rajahmundry.”

2. Of the two alternative suggestions (those at A and B) made by the Hon'ble Mr. Stone in paragraph 2 of his u.o. note above, the suggestion at B may be adopted.

3. The draft notification has been modified with reference to the above note.

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—10-11-10.

The wish of the donors of the fund was that the “Lawley prize” should be awarded to the most deserving student studying in a matriculation class, and I think that the first suggestion of the Director of Public Instruction carries out this wish more nearly than the second. But if the suggestion is adopted, the scheme should apparently specify who should decide whose certificate affords the best evidence of a satisfactory career. Cf. clause (3) of the scheme for the administration of the Scott Memorial fund. Will the Director of Public Instruction please advise on this point?

C. A. INNES—11-11-10.

To the Director of Public Instruction.

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.

I would suggest the administrators of the fund in consultation with the head of the school for the time being. Perhaps the school will have to be defined as the high school maintained by Government at Rajahmundry.

2. 3 (b) will have to read “In the event of two or more certificates being “adjudged of equal merit, the said prize shall be divided equally among their holders” Or perhaps it might be omitted altogether.

J. H. STONE—12-11-10.

To the Educational Department.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

remarks above. It is for consideration whether clause 3 (b) may be retained as altered or whether it may be omitted altogether as suggested by Mr. Stone.

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—15-11-10.

I have made a further consequential alteration. Please now make a fair copy of the scheme and let me see again.

C. A. INNES—16-11-10.

A fair copy of the scheme is put up and the file is resubmitted to the Deputy Secretary.

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—18-11-10.

The file is submitted for orders on one point. In the original draft notification regarding the “Lawley” and “Bourne” prizes endowment fund at the Rajahmundry College, it was provided that the former prize should be awarded to the pupil who passed first at Secondary school leaving certificate examination. The Hon'ble Mr. Stone

Very good reasons.

M. H[AMMICK]—21-11-10.

objects to this provision for the reasons given in his note of November 9th above, and in accordance with his suggestions, clauses 3 (a) and 3 (b) of the original draft have been redrafted as in clause 3 (a) of the revised draft. The clause as now drafted reads rather clumsily, but I think it may be accepted as substantially carrying out the wishes of the donors that the “Lawley prize” should be awarded to a most deserving student studying in the matriculation class. The draft may be approved.
