GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

Letter—from P. W. MONIE, Esq., Under Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Medical).

To—the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Local and Municipal Department.

Dated—Calcutta, the 13th January 1911.

No.—39.

I am directed to forward a copy of the letter noted on the margin, and to request that, with the permission of the Governor in Council, the rules regarding the admission of oriental students into King's College Hospital Medical school, London, may be communicated to the Principal of the Medical College, Madras.

ENCLOSURES.

(i)

Demi-official—from the Secretary, Judicial and Public Department.

To—the Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department.

Dated—India Office, Whitehall, S.W., the 9th December 1910.

No.—J. & P. 3690.

I forward a copy of a letter from the Secretary of King's College Hospital, London, dated 14th October last, enclosing a copy of the rules regarding the admission of oriental students to King's College Hospital Medical school, and requesting that the rules may be made known in India especially to members of the Government Medical staff holding educational appointments.

2. In this matter of limiting the number of oriental students, King's College Hospital is following a line of action already taken by most of the schools of medicine in London.

3. The Educational Adviser to the Secretary of State will communicate with the Secretaries of his committees in India on this subject, but it is important that the Director-General of the Indian Medical Service, and the Principals of Medical Colleges should be directly informed.

(ii)

Letter—from H. S. TUNNARD, Esq., Secretary, King's College Hospital, Lincoln's Inn Fields.

To—the Under Secretary of State for India, India Office.

Dated—London, the 18th October 1910.

In accordance with a resolution passed by the Committee of management of this hospital, I have the honour to forward herewith a copy of rules regarding the admission of oriental students into King's College Hospital Medical school, which have recently been adopted by the committee. I am to request that you may be pleased to take such steps as you may deem fit for making the rules known in India, especially to members of the Government Medical staff holding educational appointments.

(iii)

Rules regarding the admission of oriental students to the Medical school, King's College Hospital, Portugal street, W.C., 21st July 1910.

1. The proportion of oriental students shall at no time exceed one-tenth of the whole number admitted.

2. No such student shall be admitted for a less period than one year, and in every case the fees for one year shall be paid in advance.

3. Such students shall not be eligible for resident appointments in the hospital.

4. Every such application must be accompanied by satisfactory references, and, save for exceptional reasons to the contrary, must be made not less than three months before the date on which admission is sought.

5. No application shall be entertained save with the approval of the special sub-committee appointed for this purpose. (Rules 1, 2, 3 and 4 to be communicated to all such applicants.)

Order—No. 32, Educational, dated 20th January 1911.

The rules regarding the admission of oriental students into King's College Hospital Medical school, London, will be communicated to the Principal, Medical College, Madras.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SECRETARIAT.

(a) If a paper is marked to be printed urgently, the Superintendent of the section concerned should sign the Press slip. The Superintendent should exercise a careful discretion in the matter.
(b) Each letter, memorandum, or order, or set of orders, in the file of correspondence should be headed in succession with the Roman numeral I, II, III, etc., the number being written in red ink or blue chalk above the item. The particular papers to be printed in the special issue-copies should be indicated by the Roman numeral (I, II, etc.) by which that item has been headed in the correspondence file. All matter, including marginal remarks or references, to be printed should be written in ink and matter which should not be printed should be encircled. Initials and signatures that are not quite legible should be re-written distinctly.

(b¹) For rules regarding printing of notes, see the rules in G.O., No. 1220, Public, dated 30th November 1900.

(c) The number of copies and the details of distribution should be filled in by the Superintendent or Referencer concerned.

(d) In the absence of special instructions to the Press to keep matter standing for a specified period, ordinary papers of 8 pages and under will be kept standing for one week, and larger papers for two weeks only. The type of notes and of all confidential papers is distributed immediately after striking.

(e) This slip, properly and completely filled in, should accompany every paper sent to Press; it will be returned by the Press when proofs are furnished; it should be sent to the Press when a call is made for revised proofs or when a corrected proof is sent for striking. When finally returned by Press it should be filed with the original order or letter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PRESS.

(a) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent of the Press, a paper has been marked urgent unnecessarily, he should send the Press slip to the Deputy Registrar with a remark to that effect.

(b) Unless a note to the contrary is made against the matter, pencil entries should not be printed. The Superintendent of the Press may bring to the notice of the Deputy Registrar any instance of incomplete or careless editing.

(c) Signature copies of letters to the Secretary of State or to the Government of India should be printed on hand-made paper.

(d) This slip should be returned by the Press to the Secretariat when proofs are furnished; it will be sent back to the Press when proofs are returned corrected and should be finally returned to the Secretariat when struck-off copies are supplied.

(e) The names of the Secretary and Members should be printed in full when they occur on the right hand side, but only the first time when they appear on the left side, the initials alone being printed later.
