“latest Public Service notification.”

A. BUTTERWORTH—11-11-10.

Army Form “C. 309” is not available either in this office or in the Secretariat Library. It cannot therefore be said immediately whether the possession of a certificate in that form exempts a person from the operation of article 1 of the Public Service notification for holding the post of a Sub-Inspector in the Salt department. If desired, the form may be obtained from the Military office or from the College of Engineering and the question will be further examined. In the meanwhile the following reply is suggested :—

“As India Army Form C. 309 is not readily available for reference, it is not “possible to say immediately whether a person holding a second-class army certifi“cate in that form is exempt from the operation of article 1 of the Public Service
“notification for holding a Sub-Inspector's post in the Salt department. Item (1)
“of Table A appended to article 2 of the latest Public Service notification specifies
“the classes of persons exempted from article 1 for holding the post of a Sub-
“Inspector.”

P.R.—11-11-10.

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—12-11-10.

I don't think the reply suggested will further matters. Please get the Army form in question.

C. A. INNES.—12-11-10.

2. It is for orders whether a reply on the lines suggested on page 1 ante may be given to the Board.

[Letter No. 2474-1. Educational, dated 13th December 1910.]

From the General Staff Officer, 9th (Secunderabad) Division, dated 17th December 1910, No. 094/101.

The receipt of a copy of "Army Form C. 309" referred to in paragraph 2 of the General Staff Officer's letter may be awaited. In the meanwhile the receipt of the books forwarded by that officer may be acknowledged.

Issue.

C. A. INNES.

2. The draft letter herewith is submitted for approval.

3. As regards the Deputy Secretary's remarks regarding the loan of a copy of the latest edition of Vol. XIII of Army Regulations, India, it has been ascertained from the Staff Officer at Fort St. George that there is no Vol. XIII now. That volume has been superseded by the "Handbook of Instructions, 1907," copy of which has now been obtained. But without a copy of Form C. 309 it is impossible to say whether a certificate in that form exempts a man for employment in the Salt department. Probably the certificates granted under article 237 of Vol. XIII of Army Regulations, 1900 edition, which are referred to in column A of the table appended to article 2 of the Public Service notification are the same as those now issued in Form C. 309 under article 210 of the "Handbook of Instructions". If this is so, the possession of a certificate in that form would qualify a person for employment in any of the posts mentioned in column A of the table appended to article 1 of the Public Service notification, inter alia, the post of Sub-Inspector in the Salt and Abkari department.

P.R.—20-12-10.

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—21-12-10.

Await receipt of copy of form.

C. A. INNES—22-12-10.

From the Assistant Quartermaster-General, 9th (Secunderabad) Division, dated 22nd December 1910, No. 094/101.

The Assistant Quartermaster-General, 9th (Secunderabad) Division, forwards a copy of Army Form C. 309.

2. Army Regulations, India, Vol. XIII, 1900 edition, has been superseded by the "Handbook of Instructions for British Army Schools in India" and the certificates of education granted under article 237 of the old Regulations are now granted under paragraph 209 et seq. of the Handbook of Instructions for British Army Schools in India. The certificate granted in Army Form C. 309 is the second class certificate of education.

3. The Assistant Secretary to the Board of Revenue (Separate Revenue) may be informed that holders of second class army certificates of education in Army Form C. 309 are eligible for appointment as Sub-Inspectors in the Salt and Abkari department.

4. As Army Regulations, Vol. XIII, India, have been superseded, the entry No. (1) in column B of the table appended to article 2 of the Public Service notification will have to be altered with reference to the existing Regulations.

T.K.—6-1-11.

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—6-1-11.

Paragraph 3.—Find out whether Board still requires the information. This may be done by telephone and the Board may be informed at the same time as proposed.

Paragraph 4.—Yes.

The books should be returned to those we have borrowed them from.

C. A. INNES—7-1-11.

The following telephone may be sent to the Assistant Secretary, Board of Revenue, Separate Revenue:—

"I do not know whether you still require an answer to your telephonic message of the 10th November last enquiring whether the holders of second-class army certificates of education in Army Form C. 309 are eligible for appointment as

"Sub-Inspectors in the Salt and Abkari department. But if you do, the reply to it is in the affirmative. We have only just got hold of a copy of the form in question."

2. After the issue of the telephone, drafts will be prepared for altering the Public Service notification and for returning the Army Regulations.

T.K.—7-1-11.

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—7-1-11.

C. A. INNES—9-1-11.

The draft order and the draft letter are submitted for approval.

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—19-1-11.

The Honourable Member need not read all the notes, but his approval is required for the draft Government Order below which makes a small alteration in Public Service notification. The draft explains itself.
