FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

Paragraph 2 of the draft order.—The Educational Department proposes to authorise the Director of Public Instruction, in future, to pass the travelling allowance, hotel and carriage expenses of non-official gentlemen who attend educational conferences. This was one of the powers proposed to be delegated to the Director of Public Instruction by the Educational Department at the time the Decentralization Commission sat in Madras. The Local Government accordingly addressed India, in 1908, for the proposed delegation, but India, in reply, sent a copy of the draft amendment of article 1004, Civil Service Regulations, containing the delegation and stated that the corrigendum will issue shortly. The Government thereon recorded the Government of India letter without taking any further action in the matter as only a draft amendment of article 1004, Civil Service Regulations, was received. The corrigendum has since issued and is now embodied in article 1004 in the 5th edition of the Civil Service Regulations, and the local Government are now empowered to sanction the delegation of the power proposed. This department may, it is submitted, agree to the delegation proposed and accept the draft order.

V.A.M.—7-1-11.

T.H.R.—7-1-11.

The delegation proposed may be agreed to, but it is for orders whether hotel and carriage expenses may not be limited to actual expenses not exceeding some maximum per diem to be prescribed.

C. REILLY—10-1-11.

Paragraph 1 of the draft should, I think, make it clear that what may be passed is "actual expenses", and some limit of cost seems desirable both as a general direction and in the particular instance—first class rail fare with third class fare for

Rs 5.	one servant, carriage hire not exceeding
„ 7.	Rs. 4 a day, and hotel expenses not
A.G.C.	exceeding Rs. 5 a day would be about right. I think, provided these charges were actually incurred. If a man stays with friends, he ought not to bill Government for expenses he has not had to meet.

A. G. CARDEW—11-1-11.

I agree. But the rates for carriage hire and hotel are too low—certainly, so far as I am charged when I have had experience of this.
