Forwarding application for exemption from Revenue and Account Tests, Lower Grade, on behalf of Challa Narasimham, Head Clerk, Guntur Taluk Office.

To

His Excellency the Governor in Council, Madras.

Through,

The Collector,
Guntur District.

The humble memorial of Challa Lakshminarasimhan Head Cl Taluk Office, Guntur.

Your Excellency's Humble Memorialist,

Begs to state that he is now the permanent head clerk of the Taluk Office, Guntur on Rs. 30/- doing jama-bandi work, and he has been drawing this pay for the last six years. His pensionable service upto date is 19 years. He has worked as head clerk Taluk Office Tenali for four years before it was split up into two Taluks. It was the heaviest Taluk in the presidency containing both wet and dry villages, wherein, he has put in, including his service as head clerk, for four years, a total service of about 10 years. He had thus ample scope to come in contact with -- all branches of Revenue work and he may be permitted to add that he is conversant with all of them. His superiors -- were well pleased with him and they will bear ample testimony to his capabilities.

2. In this connection, he begs to state that he was sent to Kurnool district during the famine of 1896, as famine paymaster with promises of promotion and that he worked there satisfactorily, not a pie having been retrenched for wrong payment nor even found fault with even a single payment while it was not the case with others who worked there like himself. M.R.Ry. P. Lakshmi Narasimhan Avargal., who is now the Tahsildar of Narasimhan was then the famine Tahsildar in Kurnool. He also acted as will bear testimony to his satisfactory work.

3. When M.R.Ry. K.Nageswara Row Pantulu Garu w is now a Deputy Collector, was the Sub Magistrate he -- ordered him to detect the gambling case which could not be detected even by the Police and in which big merchant of the town were also involved, he detected the case at the dead of night at the risk of his life. The case -- however fell through for a time. The gambling however continued and some years later when it was detected by some Deputy Superintendents, Police Inspectors and others, in the same house the case resulted in the conviction of the gamblers and his evidence was taken into consideration in the Lower Court. On appeal against the conviction the High Court upheld the Lower Court's decision relying mainly on the strength of his evidence.

4. Also in the year 1900 when he was head clerk of the Stationary Sub Magistrate's office, Guntur, he discovered a defalcation case in which the fines imposed by the Court had been misappropriated by the bench clerk and the case resulted in the dismissal of the clerk concerned and recovery of more than Rs. 100/- from the clerk was made. In connection with this case he had under the orders of the then Sub Magistrate, to go through the accounts of two years, and to find out the actual amount misappropriated. He had thus to work hard in addition to his duties as head clerk.

5. In the year 1908, during the jamabandi of this Taluk, he found out another defalcation case which also resulted in the conviction of the karnam for six months rigorous imprisonment by the Sessions Judge Guntur. This karnam misappropriated about Rs.400/- of Government money during Faslies 1317 and 1318 and the same was collected and remitted to Treasury after the accounts were examined in the jamabandi of Fasli 1318. The then Sessions Judge will bear testimony to his satisfactory work.

3. When M.R.Ry. K.Nageswara Row Pantulu Garu was is now a Deputy Collector, was the Sub Magistrate he -- ordered him to detect the gambling case which could not be detected even by the Police and in which big merchants of the town were also involved, he detected the case at the dead of night at the risk of his life. The case -- however fell through for a time. In connection with this case he had under the orders of the then Sub Magistrate, to go through the accounts of two years, and to find out the actual amount misappropriated. He had thus to work hard in addition to his duties as head clerk.

5. In the year 1903, during the jamabandi of this Taluk, he found out another defalcation case which also resulted in the conviction of the karnam for six months rigorous imprisonment by the Sessions Judge Guntur. This karnam misappropriated about Rs.400/- of Government money during Faslies 1317 and 1318 and the same was collected and remitted to Treasury after the accounts were examined in the jamabandi of Fasli 1319.

orders he got the accounts prepared correctly and proceed with the case from the beginning to the end, will bear testimony how much trouble was taken by him in that aspect.

6. He has narrated briefly the service he had occasion to render as a public servant. The last two instances noted above may be taken as concrete instances to prove that he has good knowledge of accounts, and in spite of the arduous and responsible work which he has been discharging he is only getting Rs.30/- though he has put in 19 years service and is approaching his fortieth year. For this, he himself is partly responsible as he is only a middle school man ^{though} in the 1st class but at the time when he entered service all those who had passed middle school in the 1st class like himself had equal privileges with Matriculates but these were subsequently withdrawn. He has devoted his youth and energy to the Revenue Department and it is too late for him now to think of any other avocation to better his condition. Government have been lenient in permitting unpassed men to act upto Rs.30/- and have also been granting exemptions in deserving cases from passing special test examinations.

7. He belongs to a respectable family who for the last three generations have devoted their lives to public service and have been holding respectable appointments.

8. In consideration of the above facts and of his hard service of 19 years, he begs leave to approach your Excellency with the request that if he may be considered deserving of the indulgence he seeks for, your Excellency will be graciously pleased to exempt him from Special Tests in view to his being promoted up to Taluk Head Accountant's appointment which is after all his highest ambition.

9. Copies of testimonials are herein enclosed for perusal.

Yours,

Challa Lakshminarayana
