27th November 1910

Trichinopoly Fort.

Madam, Begum

Sir. I am honored by your kind acknowledgment of the printed leaflets addressed to you at Bombay.

I enclose herewith copy of a meeting held here yesterday en re the depressed and manual industries in the villages. The "Free education" of these scattered millions should be for an hour in the crevices and in the peaks of village offices (called Chevadies). The servants (four to seven) attached to the village officials are of the depressed classes, and the village officials may be charged with free oral education in the three Rs, in sanitation and in improved methods of cultivation of these servants and of their kin and kindred.

The Order above suggested costs little money and its execution little time and trouble and may be preliminary to the Order directing the recognition of village Panchayats to co-operate with the village officials. It will be a most auspicious and popular beginning of the Government administration. I am, Sir, yours truly, K. A. Sankarankutty

NOTES.

C.No.151, From the Government of India, No.46, dated 18th January 1911.

Subject.

Free education for the depressed classes.

The Government of India transfer for disposal a letter from Mr. A. Sankarayya of Trichinopoly about free education for the depressed classes. Mr. Sankarayya is a retired officer of the Cochin state. He suggests that free education should be given to the depressed classes for an hour in the night and in the pials of village offices and that village officials should be charged with the duty of giving such education. The suggestion that village officials should give free oral education to the depressed classes in the three R's, in sanitation and in improved methods of cultivation does not appear to be a practical one. The paper may it is submitted be sent u.o. to the Revenue Department for remarks on this point.
