Letter—from the Hon'ble Mr. J. H. STONE, M.A., Acting Commissioner for Government Examinations.

To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department.

Dated—Madras, the 21st January 1911.

No.—13/1-D.

With reference to paragraph 2 of G.O., No. 737, Educational, dated the 14th December 1910, I have the honour to submit, for approval and publication in the Fort St. George Gazette, a draft in duplicate of the alterations to be made in note (i) to the Public Service Notification.

ENCLOSURE.

Draft Notification.

In the Public Service Notification published on pages 108 to 116 of Part I-B of the Fort St. George Gazette, dated 8th March 1910, substitute the following for Note (1) :—

“The rules contained in this notification shall in no wise affect the promotion of persons who, on the 30th June 1894, held permanent appointments in the Government service before they first came into force on the 1st July 1894, provided that their promotion to posts carrying a salary of more than Rs. 20 was not already barred by any rules previously in force, and provided also that they have passed the Middle School examination in the first class and are otherwise deemed fit for such further promotion.”

Order—No. 79, Educational, dated 8th February 1911.

The draft notification submitted by the Commissioner for Government Examinations is approved with modifications and will be published in the Fort St. George Gazette :—

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 79, EDUCATIONAL,
DATED 8TH FEBRUARY 1911.

[SUBJECT.—Amendment of note 1 of the Public service notification.]

Previous papers.

G.O., No. 317, Educational, dated 9th May 1894.
“ ” 737 “ ” 14th December 1910.

From the Commissioner for Government examinations, dated 21st January 1911, No. 13/1 D.

In G.O., No. 737, Educational, dated 14th December 1910, the Government directed that the qualifications prescribed in article 1 of the Public service notification for appointments the sanctioned pay of which exceeded Rs. 20 per mensem should not in future apply to persons who had passed the middle school examination in the first class and who, on the 30th June 1894, held permanent appointments in Government service; and the Commissioner for Government examinations was requested to submit a draft of the alterations to be made in note (1) to the Public service notification. The Government also desired that the Commissioner should take this opportunity to redraft the whole note so as to express its meaning more clearly.

2. The Commissioner now submits a draft of the revised note embodying the alterations to be made in it.

3. The draft notification may, if it is submitted, be approved and published in the Fort St. George Gazette. The draft below is for approval.

T.K.—31-1-11.

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—31-1-11.

I can't understand the revised draft. To what does “they” refer to in line 5? The rules? Did the rules come into force in 1894. I thought they were new rules.

G. F. PADDISON—1-2-11.

The word “they” in line 5 of the draft order refers to the rules in the Public service notification. These rules first came into force on 1st July 1894—vide preamble to the notification which is printed as an appendix to G.O., No. 317, Educational, dated 9th May 1894. The rules are not therefore new.

2. The words “in the Government service” occurring in lines 4 and 5 of the draft notification which have been newly added by the Commissioner for Government examinations seem, however, to be redundant and may perhaps be omitted. It is for

“In the Government service” may stand but consideration whether the portion beginning with “persons who, on the 30th June 1894, held permanent appointments in the Government service before they first came into force on the 1st July 1894.”

G. F. PADDISON—7-2-11.

July 1894” may not be recast as follows: “persons who held permanent appointments prior to 1st July 1894, the date on which the rules first came into force”.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SECRETARIAT.

(a) If a paper is marked to be printed urgently, the Superintendent of the section concerned should sign the Press slip. The Superintendent should exercise a careful discretion in the matter.
(b) Each letter, memorandum, or order, or set of orders, in the file of correspondence should be headed in succession with the Roman numeral I, II, III, etc., the number being written in red ink or blue chalk above the item. The particular paper should be printed in the special issue-copies indicated by the Roman numeral (I, II, etc.) by which that item has been headed in the correspondence file. All matter, including marginal remarks or references, to be printed should be written in ink and matter which should not be printed should be encircled. Initials and signatures that are not quite legible should be re-written distinctly.

(b) For rules regarding printing of notes, see the rules in G.O., No. 1220, Public, dated 30th November 1900.

(c) The number of copies and the details of distribution should be filled in by the Superintendent or Referencer concerned.

(d) In the absence of special instructions to the Press to keep matter standing for a specified period, ordinary papers of 8 pages and under will be kept standing for one week, and larger papers for two weeks only. The type of notes and of all confidential papers is distributed immediately after striking.

(e) This slip, properly and completely filled in, should accompany every paper sent to Press; it will be returned by the Press when proofs are furnished; it should be sent to the Press when a call is made for revised proofs or when a corrected proof is sent for striking. When finally returned by Press it should be filed with the original order or letter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PRESS.

(a) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent of the Press, a paper has been marked urgent unnecessarily, he should send the Press slip to the Deputy Registrar with a remark to that effect.

(b) Unless a note to the contrary is made against the matter, pencil entries should not be printed. The Superintendent of the Press may bring to the notice of the Deputy Registrar any instance of incomplete or careless editing.

(c) Signature copies of letters to the Secretary of State or to the Government of India should be printed on hand-made paper.

(d) This slip should be returned by the Press to the Secretariat when proofs are furnished; it will be sent back to the Press when proofs are returned corrected and should be finally returned to the Secretariat when struck-off copies are supplied.

(e) The names of the Secretary and Members should be printed in full when they occur on the right hand side, but only the first time when they appear on the left side, the initials alone being printed later.
