G.O., No. 612, Educational, dated 2nd November 1910.

ABSTRACT.—Submitting to the Secretary of State for orders the question of the date from which Mr. H. Dodwell should be considered to have become a member of the Indian Educational Service.

II

Despatch—from His Majesty's Secretary of State for India.

To—His Excellency the Honourable the Governor in Council, Fort St. George.

Dated—India Office, London, the 13th January 1911.

No.—Public 1.

I have considered in Council the Educational letter of Your Excellency's Government, No. 3, dated the 2nd November 1910, in which you submit for orders the question of Mr. Henry Dodwell's seniority in the Educational Service. You point out that Mr. Dodwell was appointed Professor of History in the Presidency College, Madras, for a temporary period of eight months, and was thereafter appointed permanently to the Indian Educational Service as additional Professor of English in the same college. During the period of Mr. Dodwell's temporary service two officers were appointed to permanent posts in the Educational Service; and Mr. Dodwell represents that he should be ranked as senior to these two officers in consideration of his continuous employment in the service.

2. The continuity of Mr. Dodwell's service appears to me to constitute a strong claim in support of his contention that he should be allowed to reckon his service for seniority from the commencing date of his temporary appointment. I observe, moreover, that the Professorship held by Messrs. Simonsen and Green are two of the four posts sanctioned in my predecessor's Public Despatch to the Government of India, No. 124, dated the 3rd September 1909, which included the additional Professorship of English to which Mr. Dodwell has now been appointed; and that, had the question of Mr. Dodwell's previous service not arisen, the accidental order of their recruitment would alone have determined the seniority of these three officers.

3. In these circumstances I consider that Mr. Dodwell should be accounted to have been a member of the Indian Educational Service from the 5th July 1909, and should be allowed to take rank above Messrs. Simonsen and Green.

Order—No. 83, Educational, dated 8th February 1911.

In continuation of G.O., No. 612, Educational, dated 2nd November 1910, the Director of Public Instruction will be informed that the Secretary of State considers that Mr. Dodwell should be accounted to have been a member of the Indian Educational Service from the 5th July 1909 and should be allowed to take rank above Messrs. Simonsen and Green.
