To

The Secretary to the Government
Educational Department
Madras.

Sir,

With ref. to your G. O. no. 32 mis dated 20th January 1911, I beg leave to place before you this humble petition of mine for your kind reconsideration and favourable disposal thereof.

I do not intend to join the government service, but I intend to practise as a vakil. If I get through the Criminal and civil judicial Tests, I can practise as a vakil in the Cochin State. It is for this purpose I craved your sanction. Dr.
Keynes, Secretary to the Syndic, University of Cambridge, in reply to my letter, informs that students certificated by the University of Cambridge having passed the Senior Local Examination, are entitled to admission into the several Inns of Court of London. But my circumstances are such as not to permit me to go to that far off place and become a barrister.

 I, therefore humbly beg that I may be given sanction to appear for the criminal and civil judicial tests, for which act of kindness and generosity I shall, as in duty bound,
 ever pray.

I beg to remain,
 Sir,
 your most obedient servant

Address.

M. K. Padiyar,
 Thope,
 Cochin.

Padujar applies for permission to appear for the Civil and Criminal Judicial tests so as to qualify himself for practising as a Vashil in the Malabar State of Cochin. From this it may be gathered that the Cochin Darbar has prescribed those two tests as a qualification for Vashils practising in Cochin, presumably because the Darbar thinks that persons who appear for and pass those tests will possess such ② The minimum qualification required for appearing for Criminal Lower, i.e. F.A. examination.

General education qualification² as to make them good Vashils. That being so, to permit unpassed men to appear for the tests so as to become Vashils will be to defeat the purpose aimed at by the Darbar. The case would, however, have been different had the application been supported by the Darbar and the Resident in Travancore and Cochin. In the present case the request of the petitioners is inadmissible. He may be informed accordingly.
