G.O., No. 280, Educational, dated 24th May 1910.

ABSTRACT.—Sanctioning the employment of an assistant lecturer on Rs. 100 per mensem in the Government College, Rajahmundry.

II

Letter—from the Hon'ble Mr. J. H. STONE, M.A., F.R.H.S., Acting Director of Public Instruction, Madras.

To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department (through the Accountant-General).

Dated—the 17th January 1911.

No.—Ref. on Cur. 8456/10.

As the sanction accorded in G.O., No. 280, Mis., Educational, dated 24th May 1910, to the employment of a temporary assistant lecturer in History on Rs. 100 per mensem in the Government College, Rajahmundry, will expire with the 31st March 1911, I have the honour to request you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government for the permanent retention of the post and its inclusion in the fourth class (Rs. 100) of the subordinate collegiate service, with effect from 1st April 1911.

There are now two lecturers in History, one the permanent lecturer who is a member of the Provincial Educational Service and the other the present temporary assistant on Rs. 100, whose appointment is outside the cadre of the subordinate collegiate service, and I agree with the Principal in thinking that two permanent lecturers are indispensable for the teaching of History, seeing that the College has just been affiliated in Branch V—History, for the B.A., Pass course. I beg therefore to recommend that the post of temporary assistant lecturer in History should be made permanent.

2. The necessary provision for the charge exists in the next year's budget, and I submit herewith the usual proposition statements for favour of sanction.

From the Director of Public Instruction, dated 17th January 1911, No. 8456.

The Director of Public Instruction requests the sanction of Government for the permanent retention, with effect from 1st April 1911, of the temporary assistant lecturer in History at the Rajahmundry College and for the inclusion of the post in the subordinate collegiate service.

2. The appointment of temporary assistant lecturer was sanctioned in G.O., No. 280. Educational, dated 24th May 1910, for a period of nine months from 1st July 1910 to 31st March 1911. When applying for the appointment of the temporary assistant lecturer, the Director of Public Instruction (Dr. Bourne) stated that the post might be temporary until the 31st March 1911 and that after that period the question of its permanent retention might be considered—vide paragraph 2 of the Director of Public Instruction's letter on page 2 of G.O., No. 280, Educational, dated 24th May 1910.

3. The Acting Director of Public Instruction (the Hon'ble Mr. Stone) now states that there are two lecturers in History, one the permanent lecturer and the other the present temporary assistant on Rs. 100, and that two permanent lecturers are indispensable for the teaching of History, as the college has been affiliated in Branch V—History, for the B.A. pass course. In these circumstances, the permanent retention of the assistant lecturer may be sanctioned.

4. The draft is for approval. If approved, it may be sent to the Financial Department for acceptance.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

The staff for the teaching of History in the Rajahmundry College now consists of—

One permanent lecturer -- Provincial Educational Service.

* G.O., No. 280, Educational, dated 24th May 1910. One temporary lecturer on rupees 100 (sanctioned up to 31st March 1911*).

It is now proposed to sanction a second permanent lecturer on Rs. 100 per mensem with effect from 1st April 1911 in lieu of the temporary lecturer.

2. In the Kumbakonam College which, like the Rajahmundry College, is affiliated in Branch IV—History for the B.A. course, there are two permanent lecturers for History work, and a temporary additional lecturer for History on Rs. 100 per mensem was sanctioned for one year from 17th January 1910. The proposal to sanction a second permanent lecturer for History in the Rajahmundry College may, it is submitted, be accepted. The pay proposed, viz., Rs. 100, is the lowest rate of pay allowed to assistant lecturers in colleges.

3. It is, however, submitted for consideration whether it is necessary to sanction the proposed permanent lecturer with effect from 1st April 1911. The summer vacation of the college is to begin on the 14th April 1911, and during the closing days of March and the beginning of April, the students will very probably be engaged in examinations (either University or ordinary annual examinations), and no teaching work will have to be done until after the re-opening of the college. Again the officers, who were appointed by the University to report on the question of affiliation of the Rajahmundry College in History, contemplated the appointment of an additional lecturer in History for the college only in July 1911. In the circumstances it is for orders whether the Educational Department may be requested to consider whether it will not suffice if the present lecturer is sanctioned with effect from the date of the re-opening of the college, viz., 10th July 1911. If the suggestion is accepted, there will be a saving of about Rs. 329.

4. The extra cost involved under permanent establishments is Rs. 100 per mensem or Rs. 1,200 per annum, and provision has been made on account of the charge in the budget estimate for 1911-1912. The draft order may, it is submitted, be accepted subject to the remarks in paragraph 3 ante, the sanction being registered as No. 11 of 1911-12.

C.P.N.—13-2-11.

K. P. ANANTAN—14-2-11.

C. REILLY—14-2-11.

Educational will no doubt consider the suggestion in paragraph 3. I presume, however, that the temporary man becomes permanent and can't be cut adrift for three months.

A. G. CARDEW—16-2-11.

Educational Department.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

The temporary post of assistant lecturer in History was sanctioned for a period of nine months from 1st July 1910 to 31st March 1911. The present proposal is to make this post permanent from 1st April 1911, so that the incumbent of the post may continue in it without interruption. It is for consideration whether it is worth while to modify the Director of Public Instruction's proposal and to sanction the permanent post with effect from the 10th July instead of from 1st April next.

K. RANGASWAMI AYYANGAR—18-2-11.

For orders whether the post should be made permanent from April 1st or from July 10th. If the present holder of the temporary post is to have the permanent appointment, it seems hard to deny him pay for the holidays after he has worked throughout the year. I presume that this is the case, as the Director of Public Instruction would hardly recommend that a new man be brought in fourteen days before the holidays. I recommend that the draft be passed as it stands.

G. F. PADDISON—18-2-11.

I agree.
