1. It is not clear what is exactly meant by the expression "scholarships in each University", whether it refers to scholarships granted by the University out of its own funds or out of endowments for studying for a University degree, or whether it refers to scholarships paid by Government or from endowments attached to colleges to students studying in colleges.

2. It does not appear that the University of Madras grants any scholarships for Muhammadans.

3. In the Government Scholarship Notification issued in March last provision is made for the grant of 24 scholarships tenable in college classes--but none specially for Muhammadans, although in awarding the scholarships, the claims of those sections of the community who are most in need of aid will, other conditions being satisfied, be first considered.

4. In the Medical College, there is a special scholarship for Muhammadans--viz., the Wenlock Scholarship, which is paid from endowment funds--vide page 117 (paragraph 3) of the Medical College Calendar for 1910-11. No scholarships except free scholarships are granted by Government in this college. In the Law College, the Government grant two scholarships and one of these is awarded to a Muhammadan or Uriya student--Vide rule 28 on page 46 of the Law College Calendar for 1910.

5. As complete information on the subject is not available in this office, the telegram from the Government of India may, it is submitted,

In addition to the information contained in the note:-

(1). Seventeen Scholarships granted under the Scholarship notification are actually now held in our colleges by Muhammadans.

(2). It would take us much time to get exhaustive information about endowed scholarships, however administered by the University (Special for Muhammadans). Rajabmundry College has a Muhammadan Scholarship Endowment Fund and four Scholarships were awarded from it last year. There is also feasible in the Government Scholarship.
