From (Name) Lieut-Colonel H. Thomson, M.D., D.P.H., I.M.S.,

(Designation) Sanitary Commissioner for Madras.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,
Local and Municipal Department.

Sr,

With reference to G.O.No. 454-Educational, dated 3rd July 1905, I have the honour to bring the following facts for the favourable consideration of Government:-

T. Ragoonatha Row, the despatching clerk of my office, was first entertained in this office on 1-2-1902 to fill a vacancy caused by a clerk proceeding on sick leave. On the death of this clerk my predecessor Col. King appointed Ragoonatha Row permanently to the last post in the office on Rs. 15/-. This appointment he continued to hold until 31-7-1905 when it was discovered that according to the rules in force at the time his appointment was irregular as he was not a Matriculate. An exemption from the Examination Rules was then sought which ultimately resulted resulted in G.O.No. 454, dated 3rd July 1905 exempting him from the Examination Rules to enable him to retain his acting appointment. According to the terms of the order Raghoonatha Row was reverted from his permanent post and given an acting post on Rs. 15/-. On the re-organization of this office sanctioned in G.O.No. 807, L., dated 29th June 1910, I appointed Raghoonatha Row to a post therein sanctioned on Rs. 20/- in accordance with the Public Service Notification No. 28, dated 8th March 1910, as he had proved a good and steady worker. Thus, excluding the period during which he worked in the sick leave arrangement referred to above, Raghoonatha Row put in an acting service of 8 years and 3 days up to the date of his appointment to his present post. Unfortunately none of this service will count towards pension. I have found Raghoonatha Row to be a hard working and reliable clerk and see no reason to differ from the opinion expressed concerning him by Col. King in his Endorsement No. 1015/S, dated 7-5-1905 and para 2 of his letter No. 1104/S, dated 24-5-1905; as an unqualified clerk he is not eligible for further promotion in the office; but as a special case and in recognition of good service I would respectfully request that Government may be pleased to exempt him, so far as this office is concerned, from the Examination Rules and to permit him to count his service in this office from 29-5-1902 to 31-5-1910 towards pension.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

K. K. Rowson

SUBJECT. Requesting that T. Rajunatharaj, despatching clerk of his office may be exempted from examⁿ rules and permitted to continue service for pension from 29th May 1902 to 31st May 1910

31 May 1910
Prior to the issue of G.O. No 226 educational dated 24th March 1908. Candidates for appointment to any post in the Superior Service ^{of Govt} carrying a pay of Rs 15 or more were required to have passed the Madras Upper Secondary Examination or the Matriculation Examination of the Madras University or some other examination accepted by Govt as equivalent to these examinations. In ignorance of this rule, however, the then San^y Comm^r (Lieut Col. King I.M.S.) appointed on the 1st Feb^y 1902 one T. Raghunath Rao who was a 'failed matriculate' as a ^{Temporary} ~~acting~~ clerk of his office on Rs 15^x. In 1905, the irregularity

G was discovered and in May of that year, the San^t.
Comm^r recommended that the clerk might be permanently exempted from examination rules (Sofar as his office was concerned)
X on the ground that ~~the~~ ^{he} clerk was ^{an} extremely useful 'sharp' and willing' clerk. The Govt however saw no sufficient reasons to sanction the permanent exemption of Raghunatha Rao from examⁿ rules but temporarily exempted him therefrom until his relief on the 30th Sept 1905 at latest for employment as a clerk on Rs 15 in the S.C.'s Office. On a further representation, the Govt in their order No 454 Eol dated 3rd July 1905, exempted Ragnatharao from the examⁿ rules so as to enable him to hold the acting post on Rs 15 in the S.C.'s Office which he then held.

2. Go No 226 Eol dated 24th March 1908, having rendered unpassed Candidates eligible for appointment to posts carrying a salary of Rs 20 and less, the S.C. (Lieut Col. Thomson D.H.S.) has appointed T. Ragnatharao as a permanent clerk on Rs 20 in his office, as he had proved a good and steady worker. The S.C. now states that excluding the period during which he acted in the sick leave arrangement at the beginning, Ragnatharao has put in an acting service of 8 years and 3 days up to the date of his appointment to his permanent post, ^{on 1st June 1910} and that he (S.C.) has found the clerk to be a hardworking and reliable clerk. As Ragnatharao ^{Rao} being unequal to the post is not eligible for further promotion in the office, the San't. Comm^r requests that as a special case and in recognition of good service he may be exempted so far as his (S.C.'s) office is concerned from the examination rules and be permitted to count ^{his acting} service for pension from 29th May 1902 to 31st May 1910.

3 It is submitted that the case may be transferred to the Ed Dept for the issue of order in regard to the grant of exemption from Examⁿ rules applied for. It may be noted that the exemption is applied for in order that Ragnatha Rao may be eligible for further promotion in the S.C's office i.e. to posts carrying more than Rs 20 per mensem

4 In regard to the request that Ragnatha Rao may be permitted to count his acting service of 8 years and 3 ~~days~~ toward pension it would seem that in the light of art. 95(a) of the Civil Service Regns the question cannot be discussed ~~at present~~ at present. Tell the Sanitary Commissioner that the Government decline to exempt this clerk from the Examination rules in order to enable him to get any higher post in the office. As regards his acting service the question whether that will ^{count for} ~~come to~~ pension or not, will be considered when the clerk retires from service.
