Station Madras, Dated the 7th March 1911.

From (Name) The Hon'ble Mr. D.W.G. Cowie, I.C.S.,

(Designation) Inspector-General of Police,

Madras,

To The Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Sir,

Forwarded to the Chief Secretary.

The petitioner is not qualified for the post he applies for.

for Insp.-Genl. of Police.

His Excellency,

The Right Hon'ble Sir Arthur Lawley. K.C. M.C.
G.C.I.E

Governor of Madras.

Through,

The Hon'ble Mr. D.W.G. Cowie. J.C.S
Inspector General of Police.
Madras.

The humble petition of Shair Ali Baig Son of late Resaldar Gazaffer Baig Sahib,
No. 33, Laul Mohammad Street, Triplicane, Madras.

Vain have I sought in weather's stress
A house I did, a shelter, a lodging
On thy door at last I seek access
Will thou me turn or grant my longing?

Humbly Sheweth,

That your most gracious Excellency's petitioner is the son of late Resaldar Gazaffer Baig Sahib who fought in the Great Indian Mutiny at the battle of - Koilsa in the Western frontier of Oude. He saved the life of Captain Douglas by shooting a Sepoy with whom Captain Douglas was engaged at a disadvantage. That his grand father fought in the battle of Nagpur and both his father and grand father rendered meritorious services to the British Government. That the petitioner's testimonials as well as those of his father herewith attached will bear witness to the fact.

That your most gracious Excellency's petitioner's father had deposited a sum out of his hard earned money in the late firm of Arbuthnot in whose failure the sum was lost.
After a time the death of the petitioner's father and mother ensued.
That the petitioner did every means in him to preserve the good

good social position to which the petitioner's family was raised by your Excellency's Government. That the humble petitioner having been beset with these calamities was dragged to the necessity of discontinuing his studies and that his desire to keep up his good social position has caused him to beg a boon at your most gracious Excellency's hands.

That as regards his qualifications, your most gracious Excellency's petitioner begs to state that he has read as far as the Matriculation Class and appeared for the examination in 1908, came out successful in the first examination, but unfortunately failed in the re-examination. That he, however, possesses a very fair knowledge of English, and that he has made a special study of the English language. The certificate granted by C. W. Moss, Esq. M.A., K.C.P., and which is herewith attached, will bear testimony to my efficiency in English as well as to the respectability of my family. That he moreover begs to add that he is not lacking in any of the physical requisites. His height is 5ft 8 in and the measurement round the chest is 41 in.

That in view of his ancestors having rendered great services to the British Government, ability in doing work and lastly in view of your most gracious Excellency's deep-hearted sympathy and liberal-minded generosity, the petitioner prays that an exemption be granted him to enable him to enter into the Police Department, since his not having passed the Matriculation Examination serves as it were a bar to enter the same as a Sub-Inspector. That your most gracious Excellency has been generous enough to grant exemption to persons whose genealogy and rights were as great as the humble petitioner. That in your most gracious Excellency the petitioner has a patron and benefactor, and that during your most gracious Excellency's sojourn in India for a few months, the petitioner prays that his humble request may be accorded to, so that your Excellency's memory may be cherished by him till his very last.

That for this kind and generous act of your most gracious Excellency, the humble petitioner shall, in duty bound, pray to the Almighty God for your Excellency's long life and prosperity. That were he be disappointed in this hope he will resign to his adverse lot with a bitter pang.

Triplicane, Madras }

Your Excellency's humble petitioner, Shair Ali Baig.

COPIES OF TESTIMONIAL.

[Read docket from H. DOUNE, Esq., Assistant Secretary,
Military Department, dated 25th November 1896, General
No. 1059—Forwarding herewith the certificate as requested.]

The Officer Commanding the Mysore Troops desires to place on record his appreciation of the long and faithful service of RESSALDAR GAZAFFER BEG who has been retired from 1st July 1895 on a pension of Rs. 80 per mensem, and in wishing him farewell, Lieutenant-Colonel Macintire trusts Ressaldar Gazaffer Beg will live many years to enjoy his well-earned pension

A. H. MACINTIRE, LIEUT.-COLONEL,
Military Secretary, Govt. of Mysore.

BANGALORE,
25th November 1896.

I have known Regimental Havildar Major Gazefer Beg for upwards of 20 years when Adjutant of the Regiment I made him "Boy Havildar Major" I have a high opinion of him.

On one occasion during the Mutiny in Bengal Gaze-fer Beg saved the life of Captain Douglas by shooting a sepoym with whom Captain Douglas was engaged at a disadvantage. Captain Douglas had a very high opinion of Gazefer Beg and obtained his promotion for good conduct in the field in 1858.

But for the reductions in the cavalry Gazefer Beg would probably have long since been promoted to a commissioned officer a rank which I hope he may soon attain.

I have known the bearer Havildar Gazefer Beg of the 4th Regiment Light Cavalry for about two years and four months. I commanded the Squadron to which he belongs for 14 months and I always found him to be an active, energetic and good non-commissioned Officer, I believe him to be a trustworthy and a respectable man.

Madras Light Cavalry.

Secundarabad,
October 27th 1872.

The bearer Havildar Gazefer Beg 4th M. L. C., was for about two years in my Squadron as Naique during which time, I found him steady active and clean man. I believe him to be trustworthy and a respectable man.

Government Madrasa-i-Azam, Madras, 28th January 1911.

Shair Ali Baig was a pupil of this School for three years (1907-1909) and his conduct was entirely satisfactory. He was a hard-working youth and took an honourable place in his various classes. He possesses a very fair knowledge of English.

He belongs to a very respectable family. His father was a Resaldar, and rendered meritorious services to the British Government.

I have great pleasure to testify to the exemplary character and unimpeachable conduct of Sher Ali Beg Sahib who reading in Matriculation class of our Madrasa. He speaks and reads English well so much so that I have seen him composing poems in English. His knowledge of Urdu is above the average. He comes of a family in which literary and military talents were always combined. He is thoroughly honest and trustworthy. I wish him every success in life.
