Educational Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to request that Government will be pleased to exempt one M.H. Sivasanker Singh from the provisions of Article 1 of the Public service notification for employment as an Inspector of Police. He is the son of Risaldar Hari Singh, Aide-de-Camp to His Excellency the Governor, and son-in-law of Rao Bahadur M.R.Ry. T. Jey Singh Avargal, Deputy Superintendent of Police, Criminal Investigation Department. He is 20 years of age and is studying in the Fourth Form in the Church of Scotland Mission College, Madras. He can read and write Telugu and can speak Urdu, Hindi and Tamil. The Commandant, His Excellency the Governor's Body Guard, certifies that he under

Respected Sir,

I beg respectfully to approach your honor with request, which I feel sure will receive your kind and sympathetic consideration.

I am desirous of entering myself into the Police Department to which I have sent in my application to the Inspector General of Police for a Post of an Inspector and with this view I you will pardon me, if I take up your valuable time in putting forward my claims. I understand that it is the liberal policy of the Government in making selections for such appointments to take in men of approved character and ancestry granting exemptions in the matter of University qualifications.

I beg to state that my case is one, which by your kind recommendation will justify such an exemption. With this view I beg to give you a brief history of our ancestry. Apart from my father's personal career as Native A.D.C and my father-in-law Rao Radur Jaysingh as Deputy Superintendent of Police, it is always with the feelings of the greatest pride that I look back upon the services rendered by my ancestors to the British Raj.

My great Grand father Shivaram Sing was appointed "Subedar" by John White Hall Esqr, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Fort and its Garrison with the effect from 1st March 1774. He was present under Lord Clive at the battle of Plassey and the capture of Fort William and also at the wars of Carnatic. He was present at Col. Paillie's defeat by Hyder Ali in 1770 and subsequently proceeded with General Sir Tyre Coote to the battle of Fort St David in 1782.

My great grand father had four brothers, all of whom served the honorable Company and took part in some of the most Memorable battles in the early days of the British rule, thus rendering distinguish services.

My grand father Nathan Singh of the 4th Prince of Wales Own Light Cavalry was present at the Bengal Mutiny.

With such an ancestral record before me, I would in the ordinary course be entitled to a Direct Commission in the native army but owing to the reorganisation of the Madras Regiment, is not now possible for me to get such a commission.

As the Police Department is quasi Military Department and as I possess the necessary physique and am a good horseman I venture to approach you with a request for an exemption of the University qualifications, having regard to the martial family to which I belong.

If a precedent were necessary I beg to point out that Mr. Sreeramulu Naidu, Dy. Superintendent of Police the son of the Late Mr. R. Paliah Naidu had been exempted from the necessary qualifications of the University.

I also beg to state that the time for my father's retirement from service will be reached in a couple of years. I therefore beg to appeal to your honor in consideration of my father's and my Father-in-law's meritorious service rendered to the British Government and in the light of the facts above mentioned to do me the personal kindness of exempting me for the post which I crave for and which I am so anxious I should secure.

For which act of kindness I and my family will owe you a debt of endless gratitude.

I beg to remain,

Respected Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

M. A. Sivasanker Singh.
